A Friend Called Acton

dian folk music goes and he tells it like it is. He won a Juno (Canadian music) award so he's doing something right. At least he had the courtesy to sit with me."

So what excitement does Haggett get from writing songs?

"I like to see the reaction from the people when they sit and listen to them," states Haggett.

"Song writing is interesting, exciting and I'm going to record a couple more because I'm going east in the summer," he explains. "I think I could write more if I had the time and could be more creative. Maybe one day I will.

"It's something to look back on. The bottom line is, I want to make an album eventually, providing I get the money to do it."

A Friend Called Acton

Music & Lyrics by Jim Haggett

When I came to Ontario, on train the trip I made
I ended up in Acton, that's where I stayed
I don't have money, I've never reached fame
But with friends like you people, I'm a rich man just the same.

A friend called Acton, north of the 401
A place of employment with friendship and fun
There is a good social life, you won't be alone
To me it's my home away from home.

I arrived here in '69 right out of school
Got a job at Mason Knitting with Ray Agnew
But business was bad, the plant was shut down
Thought I'd have to leave this well-known Leathertown
But there was a job at Beardmores for me
Thanks to a gentleman named Les Duby.

Some of these friends have passed on
The Hide House was born, Beardmore is gone
But once in awhile I'll take a walk
Down Lovers Lane
The old path to Beardmores
Where my memories are regained.
