FoodShare drive underway

Acton FoodShare is in the midst of their lowest point in quantity since this time last year.

In an attempt to shore up the empty shelves, FoodShare co-ordinator Joan Waldie has announced a Mother's Day drop-off week, starting today (Wednesday) at various locations in town.

"We're targeting mothers and kids because they've always been our concern," said Waldie, who added that the food bank has used a lot of the funds from last year towards children's lunches.

Waldie said the greatest need is for powdered milk, peanut butter, cheese whiz, canned stews, canned meats, spaghetti sauce, brown sugar, cereal, pasta, tuna, soup and jam.

Donations will be accepted at Acton IGA, Foodland, the post office, police station and Halton Hills Credit Union.

"A lot of people are coming in and we're seeing the working poor," Waldie stated. "We all have to have a certain level of comfort in life."

The campaign may be extended beyond next Wednesday if there are still empty shelves at FoodShare.

HOMEPLAN OF THE WEEK!

PLAN NO. U-770

Design Created by Split Foundation

This imaginative design makes use of differing levels to create an unusual and pleasing floor layout.

The foundation is split such that the living room, family room, den, and the utility area are all two steps below the remainder of the main floor layout. As a result, each of the rooms on this lower level feature elegant nine foot ceilings, and there are no stairs to climb at the foyer, garage, or family room entries. As well, the split foundation establishes a subtle distinction between the main living and the eating areas.

Upstairs, another uncommon feature separates this plan from the ordinary. The staircase divides at the top creating two separate entries: one into the secondary bedroom area, and the other into the master bedroom. As well as containing a deluxe four-piece ensuite and walk-in closet, the master also features a linen closet and a private balcony.

Plans for U-770 may be obtained for $390 for a package of five complete sets of working prints and $35 for each additional set of the same plan. Allow $12 extra to cover the cost of postage and handling (B.C. residents add applicable sales tax to plan total). All Canadian residents add seven per cent GST to plan total plus postage and handling.

This is one of our new designs. Many innovative plans are now available in our 25th Anniversary Edition plan catalogue for $9.58 including postage and handling and seven per cent GST.
