On Saturday, May 15 our branch had four golfers qualify to go on to the District Golf Competition in Hagersville in July: Dave Thompson (80), Dugald Dick (82), Jules Russiani (84), and Ken Jones (86). Congratulations Comrades and Good Luck in Hagersville.

This has been a banner year for Branch 197 in competitive sports; thanks to those involved in setting up and promoting these events. Many thanks to Ken Hilditch, Zone Sports Officer and Gus Jeffrey, Branch Sports Officer.

A request of help to dig holes and place crosses on June 3 to prepare for Decoration Day on June 6. If you can spare time to help out please leave your name and number at the bar or contact Ab Irwin directly.

Coming events: Beef Barbecue on Saturday, June 26. Have you got your ticket yet? They are available at the bar for $7.50 per person. See you at the Branch!

HELPING HAND: Sara Murphy presents FoodShare's Loretta Duclos with a $25 cheque after the McKenzie-Smith student sold tickets to win a self-designed ceramic picture frame and a set of teddy bear book-ends. Murphy sold tickets for 20 cents at the school's recent open house and buffet dinner. Last year, the 13-year-old donated $32.50 after selling tickets for the Monster Madness school play. Final Analysis
Richard Gere, Kim Basinger and Uma Thurman co-star in this taut suspense-thriller about two women who seek to commit the perfect murder by pulling wool over the eyes of Dr. Isaac Barr (Gere), a psychiatrist expert in plea-bargaining on grounds of temporary insanity. Duped into believing Heather Evans (Basinger) suffers from alcohol-related psychosis, he unwittingly prevents her conviction for the murder of her husband, only to find that he is to be framed for it. Final Analysis moves with Hitchcock-like pace and direction, ending in a unique way that leaves you spellbound.

Mr. Baseball
Tom Selleck and Aya Takahashi star in this lighthearted comedy about a baseball player named Jack Elliott (Selleck) who, because of his age and ailing game, is to be traded away for a hot-shot rookie. The only team that will take him though, is in Japan! Once there Jack suffers from some of the biggest shocks of his life as cultures clash and the playing field becomes alien territory. Aided by a superb supporting cast and a refreshing script that doesn't make a joke out of every cultural difference, but tries to take a serious tack, Mr. Baseball is that rarity of rarities: A good sports flick.
Rated PG-13, 168 minutes.
