AHS sends four to Regional track finals

BY DOUG HARRISON
The Acton Tanner

Four of seven Acton High track and field members entered in Thursday's Golden Horseshoe Athletic Conference (GHAC) championships will keep their track shoes on as they qualified for the Regional finals tomorrow (Thursday) at McMaster University in Hamilton.

Representing the Acton school are: Amanda Bonnell, who will run the Midget 200 and 400-metre; Jenny Goy, the Midget 80-metre hurdles; Heather Trotter, Midget discus; and Trisha Denny in the Senior triple jump.

Bonnell finished third in her Midget 200m heat at 28.8 seconds and third in the final with a 27.9 clocking for an overall third-place showing. She also fashioned a personal best time of 61.2 in the Midget 400m to take first. Bonnell also added a sixth in the Midget high jump, measuring 1.40m.

In a 14.6 time, Goy finished third in her 80m hurdle heat and rose to the top in the final at 13.7. She finished seventh in the Midget triple jump with an 8.95 leap.

A throw of 22.54m was good enough for Heather Trotter to grab third-place in the Midget discus. Trotter added a sixth with a 7.94m put in the Midget shot put.

Denny attained Acton High's second personal best of the day with a 9.54m Senior triple jump, good for fourth and trip to the Steel City.

While they won't make a second trip, Julie Robinson, Shelby DaPonte and Rob Tiralongo were impressive in their events.

Peewee Rams are 2-0

Richard Raju's four-goal output paced the Acton Galvcast-McKenzie Chapman Peewees to an exciting 7-5 lacrosse win over host Arthur last Tuesday.

The locals improved their record to 2-0 following their recent season opening triumph in Brantford.

Marc Forbes, Jason Christopher and Shawn Weatherall also scored.

Raju with two, Jeff Newman Scotty Monaghan, Paul Withers, Matt Bodin, Thomas Wolfer and Ryan Young had assists.

In Brantford, Kyle Artem scored two goals and added two assists in Acton's 18-1 shellacking over their hosts (Brantford II) in the locals' season opener.

Acton exploded for 10 goals in the first period to end any hopes of a Brantford comeback.

Raju, Newman, Scotty Monaghan, Sandy Chapman and Chris Lee all bagged two goals for the winners.

Singles went to Andrew Cole, Withers, Bodin, Weatherall, Wolfer and Stephen Monaghan.

Artem and Chapman led the assist parade with a pair each. Garret Erdelac, Raju, Wolfer, Stephen Monaghan, Bodin and Weatherall chipped in singles.
