

Acton Cleaners dusts off Glen Williams; Winters homers

Acton Cleaners squeezed past Glen Williams by a 19-18 score in baseball action last week.

Kyle Winters hit a grand slam homer in the third inning to tie the game for Acton.

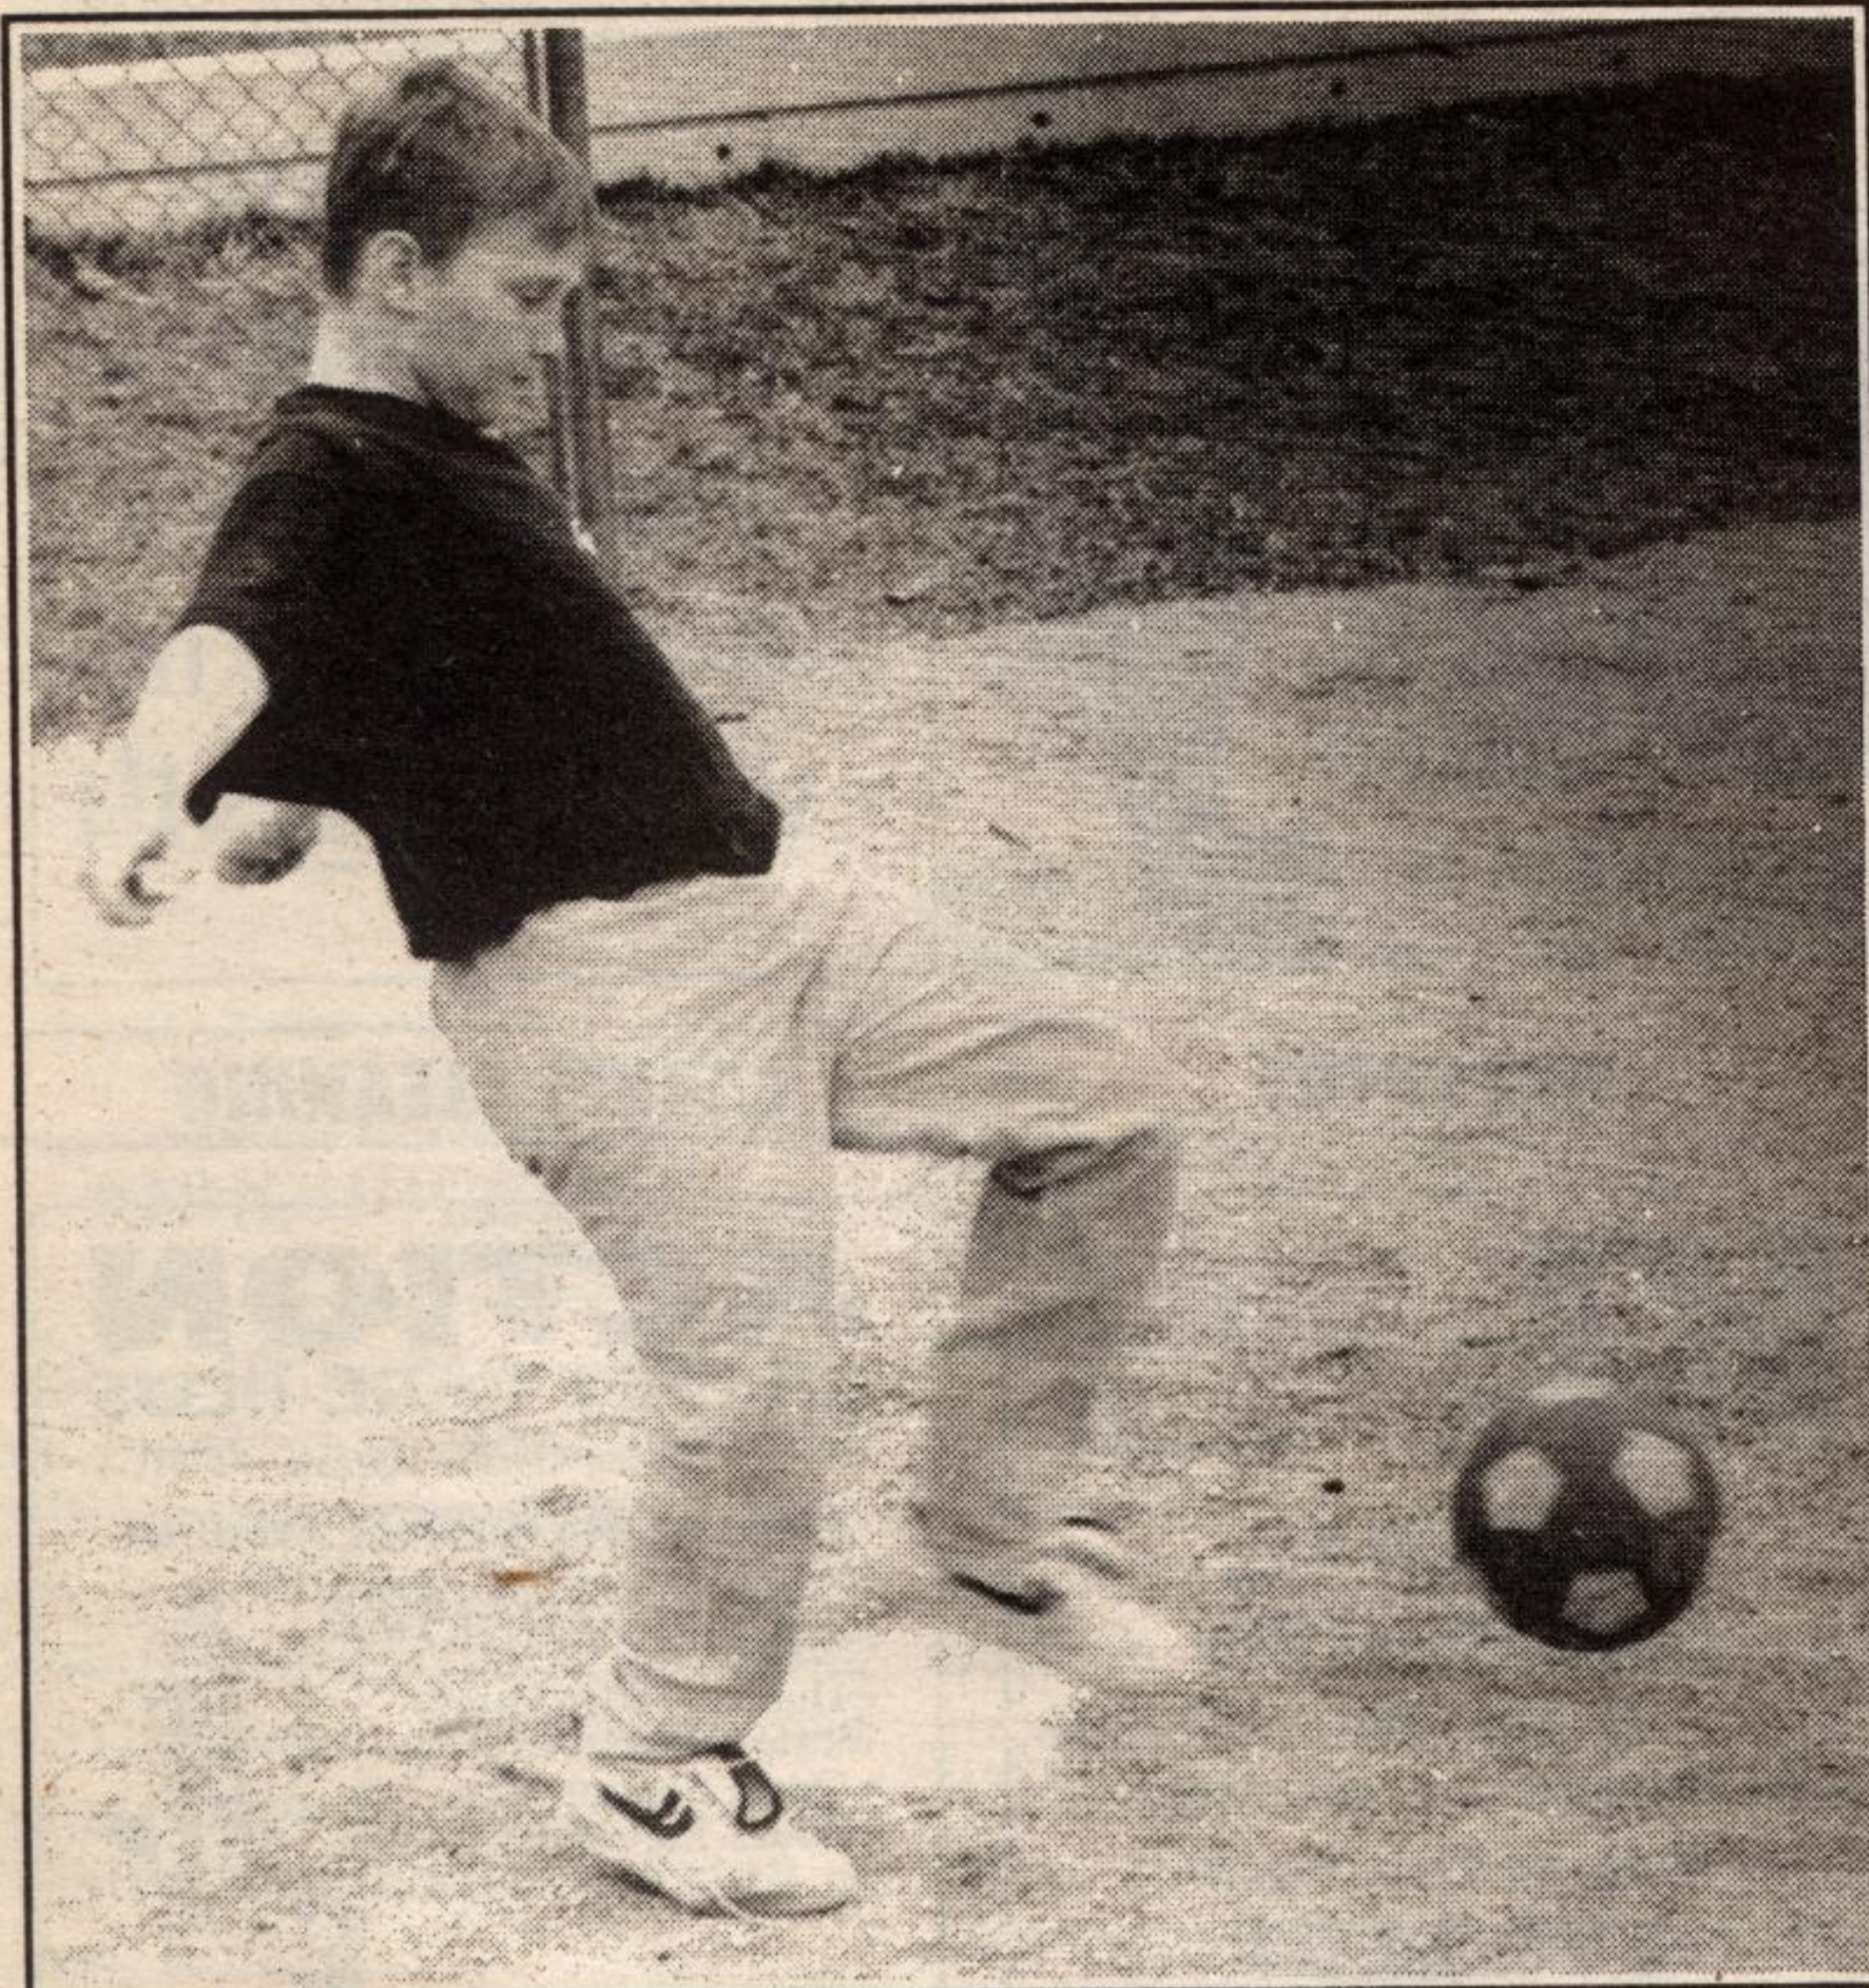

Norman Corp scored the winning run on a home run, courtesy of brutal Glen Williams fielding.

With the win, Acton's record stands at 2-1.

Bursey hits first Legion homer in 15-10 win

In Acton Legion Peeewe Boys' Softball play on Thursday, Chris Bursey hit Acton's first home run of the year as his team prevailed 15-10 over Glen Williams.

Teammate Daniel Lawrence added a triple as the Acton squad received a strong effort from all team members.

In hardball action last week, Entertainment Tonite's Bantam boys split a pair of home games.

On Friday, it was Acton against Acton as Entertainment Tonite were pitted against Halton Hills Electric.

The bats were lucky for E.T. as the score read a favourable 9-4.

Last Tuesday, E.T. suffered their first loss of the season, a 12-8 battle against visiting Waterdown.

Even a total of 13 strikeouts by the Acton pitching squad couldn't silence the opposition.

Mike Moulard, Jeremy Wallis, Greg Richmond and Ryan Valente all contributed singles.

Heavy hitters Luis Mastro, Chris Sargent and Steve White shone in the second inning with a trio of home runs.

Next game for Entertainment Tonite is tonight (Wednesday) at home against Kilbride.

Mosquitoes lose 21-11

Greg Barends banged out two hits, scored three times and drew a walk, but it wasn't enough as Brookville dumped Acton Lions Club Mosquitoes 21-11 here on Thursday.

It was Acton's first loss.

John Laing also had a good day for Acton with two hits and two runs scored.
