

Team effort good for win

An excellent team effort by Acton's Tyler Tedbits resulted in a 13-2 thumping over Hornby last Monday in Atom Girls baseball play.

Acton pitchers Kendra Ashley and Jaime Crabtree each recorded five strikeouts in their stints on the mound.

Ashley and Jodi Baldwin had two RBIs each, while Crabtree and Laura Barends slugged doubles.

Acton's Michelle Galda played a strong game at first base.

Novice Rams take silver in tourney

BY DOUG HARRISON
The Acton Tanner

The Acton Tim Horton lacrosse Rams are progressing into a steady unit in rapid fashion and can point to the weekend Bolton-Caledon tournament for the latest evidence.

Acton advanced to the Novice Gold championship on Sunday after disposing of both Milton and host Bolton Saturday in Pool A action. The Orangeville Northmen were pitted against the locals after the former knocked off Fergus and Mimico in Pool B.

Ryan Weatherall scored three in the exciting final, but Orangeville bettered that with an eight-spot to send Acton home with well-deserved silver medals.

Tim Pembleton and Matt

Wolfer scored the other goals.

Wolfer, David Lyons, Michael McDonald and Jon Newby counted helpers in a losing cause.

Acton goalies Daniel Charland and Tyler Erdelac were sound between the pipes.

In the semi-final, Weatherall banged home four goals as his team won an 8-6 shootout with the Milton Mavericks.

Wolfer scored a pair, while Pembleton and McDonald had one each.

Wolfer, Lyons, Michel Dube and Nicholas Mastro had assists.

The Rams opened the weekend with a fine defensive effort, a 4-1 win over the Bolton Bandits.

McDonald, Wolfer, Dube and Weatherall tallied for the winners.

Assists went to Newby and McDonald.

The Rams played in Owen Sound last night (Tuesday).

Shutouts in Mini-Squirt

Two shutouts were recorded at M.Z. Bennett last Monday in Mini-Squirt soccer play.

Ryan Wilde scored all three of Super Submarine's goals for a 3-0 win over Guelph OPP, while Blue Springs Flower Shop's Treth MacDougall booted two in Acton Town Milk's net in a 3-0 victory.

Wilde's goals were assisted by Kyle Creasey and Kevin Davis.

In the other match, Julia Sisnett scored the other Blue Springs goal.

Assists went to Amanda Pettit, Gregory Black and Jeffery VanHelvoort.

Nicole Gobin and Christopher Payne played outstanding for Acton Town Milk, but were unable to get the ball in the Blue Springs net.

Jesse Spiers had a great two-way game.

Reds duel to tie with Kilbride

The Acton minor ball Tyke Reds hammered out an 11-11 draw with Kilbride in softball action on Thursday.

Adam Burgess and Steven Terry led the way for the Reds with some timely hitting.

THE WRATH OF GRAPES

WITH DON CHERRY

The un ... "Great" ... ful Gretzky

The guy who started the campaign to get fighting out of hockey is one of our own. Wayne Gretzky said he wanted fighting out of the game because it gave a bad image to his Hollywood friends. Here's a guy who played 10 years for the Edmonton Oilers, set a million records with Dave Semenko riding shotgun for him. If you touched Gretzky, it was your life.

Remember when everybody used to say "Come on, there's a rule in the NHL, not to hit Gretzky, right?" The funny story is that Wayne would come to the bench and holler Sammy! Sammy!, if someone was bothering him.

So Gretzky sets a zillion records being protected by fighting and now he wants to get guys like Dave Semenko out of the game to please his Hollywood friends.

To please Wayne's friends, we get guys being carved by sticks and it's not right. I gotta tell ya, if Arsenio and Jay don't like hockey with fights, I really don't give a damn and neither do you!
