Legion initiation on July 23

LEGION NEWS

BY HARRY NORTON

The Wednesday Bridge groups showed up and took advantage of the air-conditioning. The winners were Marj Chase, Lil Cook and Yvonne Hamilton. Still lots of room for those wanting to learn.

The regular Euchre group turned out on Thursday and I got my first lesson. Euchre players come out every Thursday. Canada Day was no exception, so I stand corrected.

July 1 winners: First, Ruth McCullough; second, Jean Milne; third, Emma Stewart and N. Wilson, fourth. Jean McPhail, Wild Card and Hidden Winner Doll Tournour.

July 8 winners: First, Eileen Wedge; second, Martha Richardson; third, Joan Drenten and Harvey Lambert, fourth; B. Inscoc and Henry Wedge. Doll Tournour is listed again as hidden winner—is that luck Doll or is that the booby prize?

Weekly Beef Draw winners were: Early Bird — R. Angell and Shorty Lowin.

Regular — Dot Norton, Neil Caron, Al Kent, Ed Edeson, John Chillman, Alex McFarlane, John Robson, Allan Ellerby, Frank Koen, Gord McCutcheon, Jim Shields and Alex McFarlane.

Large Prize — Shorty Lowin. Coming Events

July 14, Wednesday: Bridge
July 15, Thursday: Euchre
July 23, Friday: INITIATION — A number of new members are joining the branch. Family and friends are welcomed. Lunch and dancing following.

Hector Lambert and Ken Hurren are back at home from the hospital and hopefully Chuck Davies will be out of the Georgetown Hospital by the time this goes to press. How about some of you folks dropping in to see them while they convalesce.

Good value, good times

Good music and good food are promised for the second annual Leathertown Festival Sunday, Aug. 8 from 11 to 5 pm.

Bring the whole family to Acton's Leathertown Festival where you'll find lots to see and do and it won't cost you a fortune!

Board the double decker bus at the olde Hide House parking lot (it only costs $1 per person) and tour the town for a bird's eye view of the sights accompanied by a colourful commentary scripted by Hartley Coles.

Stop for lunch at the Acton Rotary Club's corn roast and hot dog barbecue and while eating, enjoy the stage performances by the Acton School of Dance, the 50-plus Cloggers, Acton Star Thru Squares, Cheri Lindsay's Dance

Studio and the Acton Citizens' Band (on-going throughout the day). For dessert, you might want to sample the goodies at one of the church groups' bake sales.

Visit the craft sale where over a dozen invited participants will be selling their hand made products, from wood crafting to leather jewellery.

Children will be delighted to get their faces painted free and will enjoy the Indian Pow Wow!

Whetherby's will be celebrating the Festival with "British Days" where you'll find special activities for children and pop-the-balloon sales.

There is still time to get involved! Join the celebration by registering at Wetherby's: 853-1633 or 853-0239.

Video reviews by Susan Lindsay

Forever Young

Mel Gibson stars in this light-hearted love story. Daniel McCormick (Gibson) is shattered by the supposedly imminent death of his true love, so he agrees to be part of a military experiment. McCormick is frozen alive in 1939 and found in 1992 by two young boys. In his quest to find his friend Harry, the inventor that performed the experiment, McCormick encounters various obstacles, from 1990's technology to military intelligence. This is a genuinely nice movie with a nice ending. Definitely good family fare. Rated PG, 102 minutes, released in 1992.

Bodies Of Evidence

Madonna headlines in this provocative film and that alone should speak volumes. The plot, when it actually appears, follows the trial of Rebecca Carlson (Madonna), accused of manslaughter in the death of her wealthy, older lover. Willem Defoe plays her lawyer, who she continually seduces (this actually accounts for about three-quarters of the movie) and convinces of her innocence. The only dramatic point occurs with the revelation of the culprits — this occurs in the last two minutes of the film. Overall this is a typical Madonna sex-flick, devoid of any dramatic talent. Rated R, 121 minutes, released in 1992.
