NHLers head hockey school

Toronto Maple Leaf Mark Osborne and ex-Buds Ron Ellis and John Anderson will be instructing 9 to 13-year-old hockey players at a one-day hockey school Aug. 28 in Milton and they want to see Acton players.

Sponsored by the Milton Alliance Church, the one-day event at the Thompson arena will offer an exciting day of training and fellowship for the young people and involve church people in volunteering in events that benefit the community.

The school, which runs from 9 am to 5 pm and costs $45, offers the player four hours of on-ice instruction including a scrimmage, an off-ice instructional program, lunch, two tickets to the evening banquet from 5:30 to 8:30 pm., prizes, autographed hockey sticks and souvenir photos.

There are spaces for 75 individuals, but as of Monday, 40 had already been taken.

Other instructors include: Brian Crichton, a member of the 1975-76 Memorial Cup champion Toronto Marlboros and Dan Fergus of the International Hockey League's Port Huron Flags. Goaltending instructors are Brent Ladds, president of the Ontario Hockey Association's Orillia Terriers and Lynn Zimmerman, a 12-year netminder for the Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League.

Chuck Ealey, a former quarterback with the Grey Cup champion Hamilton Tiger-Cats and Toronto Argos, is the day's guest speaker and will discuss his professional career and the role God played in it.

Proceeds will go to Deborah's Home and Big Sisters Association of North Halton.

Anyone interested in a registration form or further information, call Mark Kotchapaw at the Milton Alliance Church at 878-5664.

Final hockey sign-up Thursday

Acton Minor Hockey will hold one last earlybird registration before determining the number of teams it will ice for the 1993-94 season.

The rep hockey organization had previously announced five registration dates and has added tomorrow (Thursday) from 7 to 9 pm at the Community Centre before a late fee will be charged.

Acton Minor Hockey president Dave McIntyre is asking that all players interested in playing rep hockey, make their intentions known at this time by showing up at this final earlybird registration.

According to McIntyre, their executive is well aware of the current economic situation and payments schedules can be worked out to meet individual budgets.

If you are unable to attend this registration, arrangements can be made by contacting Phyllis Stuckless at 853-4938, before the Thursday evening registration.

Tryouts for the upcoming season are slated to begin on Sept. 11 at Gordon Alcott arena in Georgetown.

Peewees gunning for a perfect season

BY DOUG HARRISON
The Acton Tanner

Even when the opposition scores eight goals, the Acton Galvest and MacKenzie-Chapman Peewee lacrosse squad are never out of the game.

Not when they frequently have third-period scoring rampages to let themselves breath down the other team's neck or even jump into the lead.

And not when you can rely on two sharpshooters like captain Richard Raju and Kyle Artem.

Raju scored four times and Artem bagged a hat-trick as the locals won an 11-8 shootout over London at the Community Centre on Thursday.

Coupled with a 7-4 victory over Guelph on the road last Monday, Acton remains in first place as their record soared to 11-0-1 with two games remaining in the Zone 8 Central Ontario season.

Two of Artem's markers and a pair by Shawn Weatherall headed a six-goal third-period as Acton doubled London 6-3 in the final frame to break up a 5-5 gut wrencher.

Jeff Newman and Garrett Erdelac also scored for the home side.

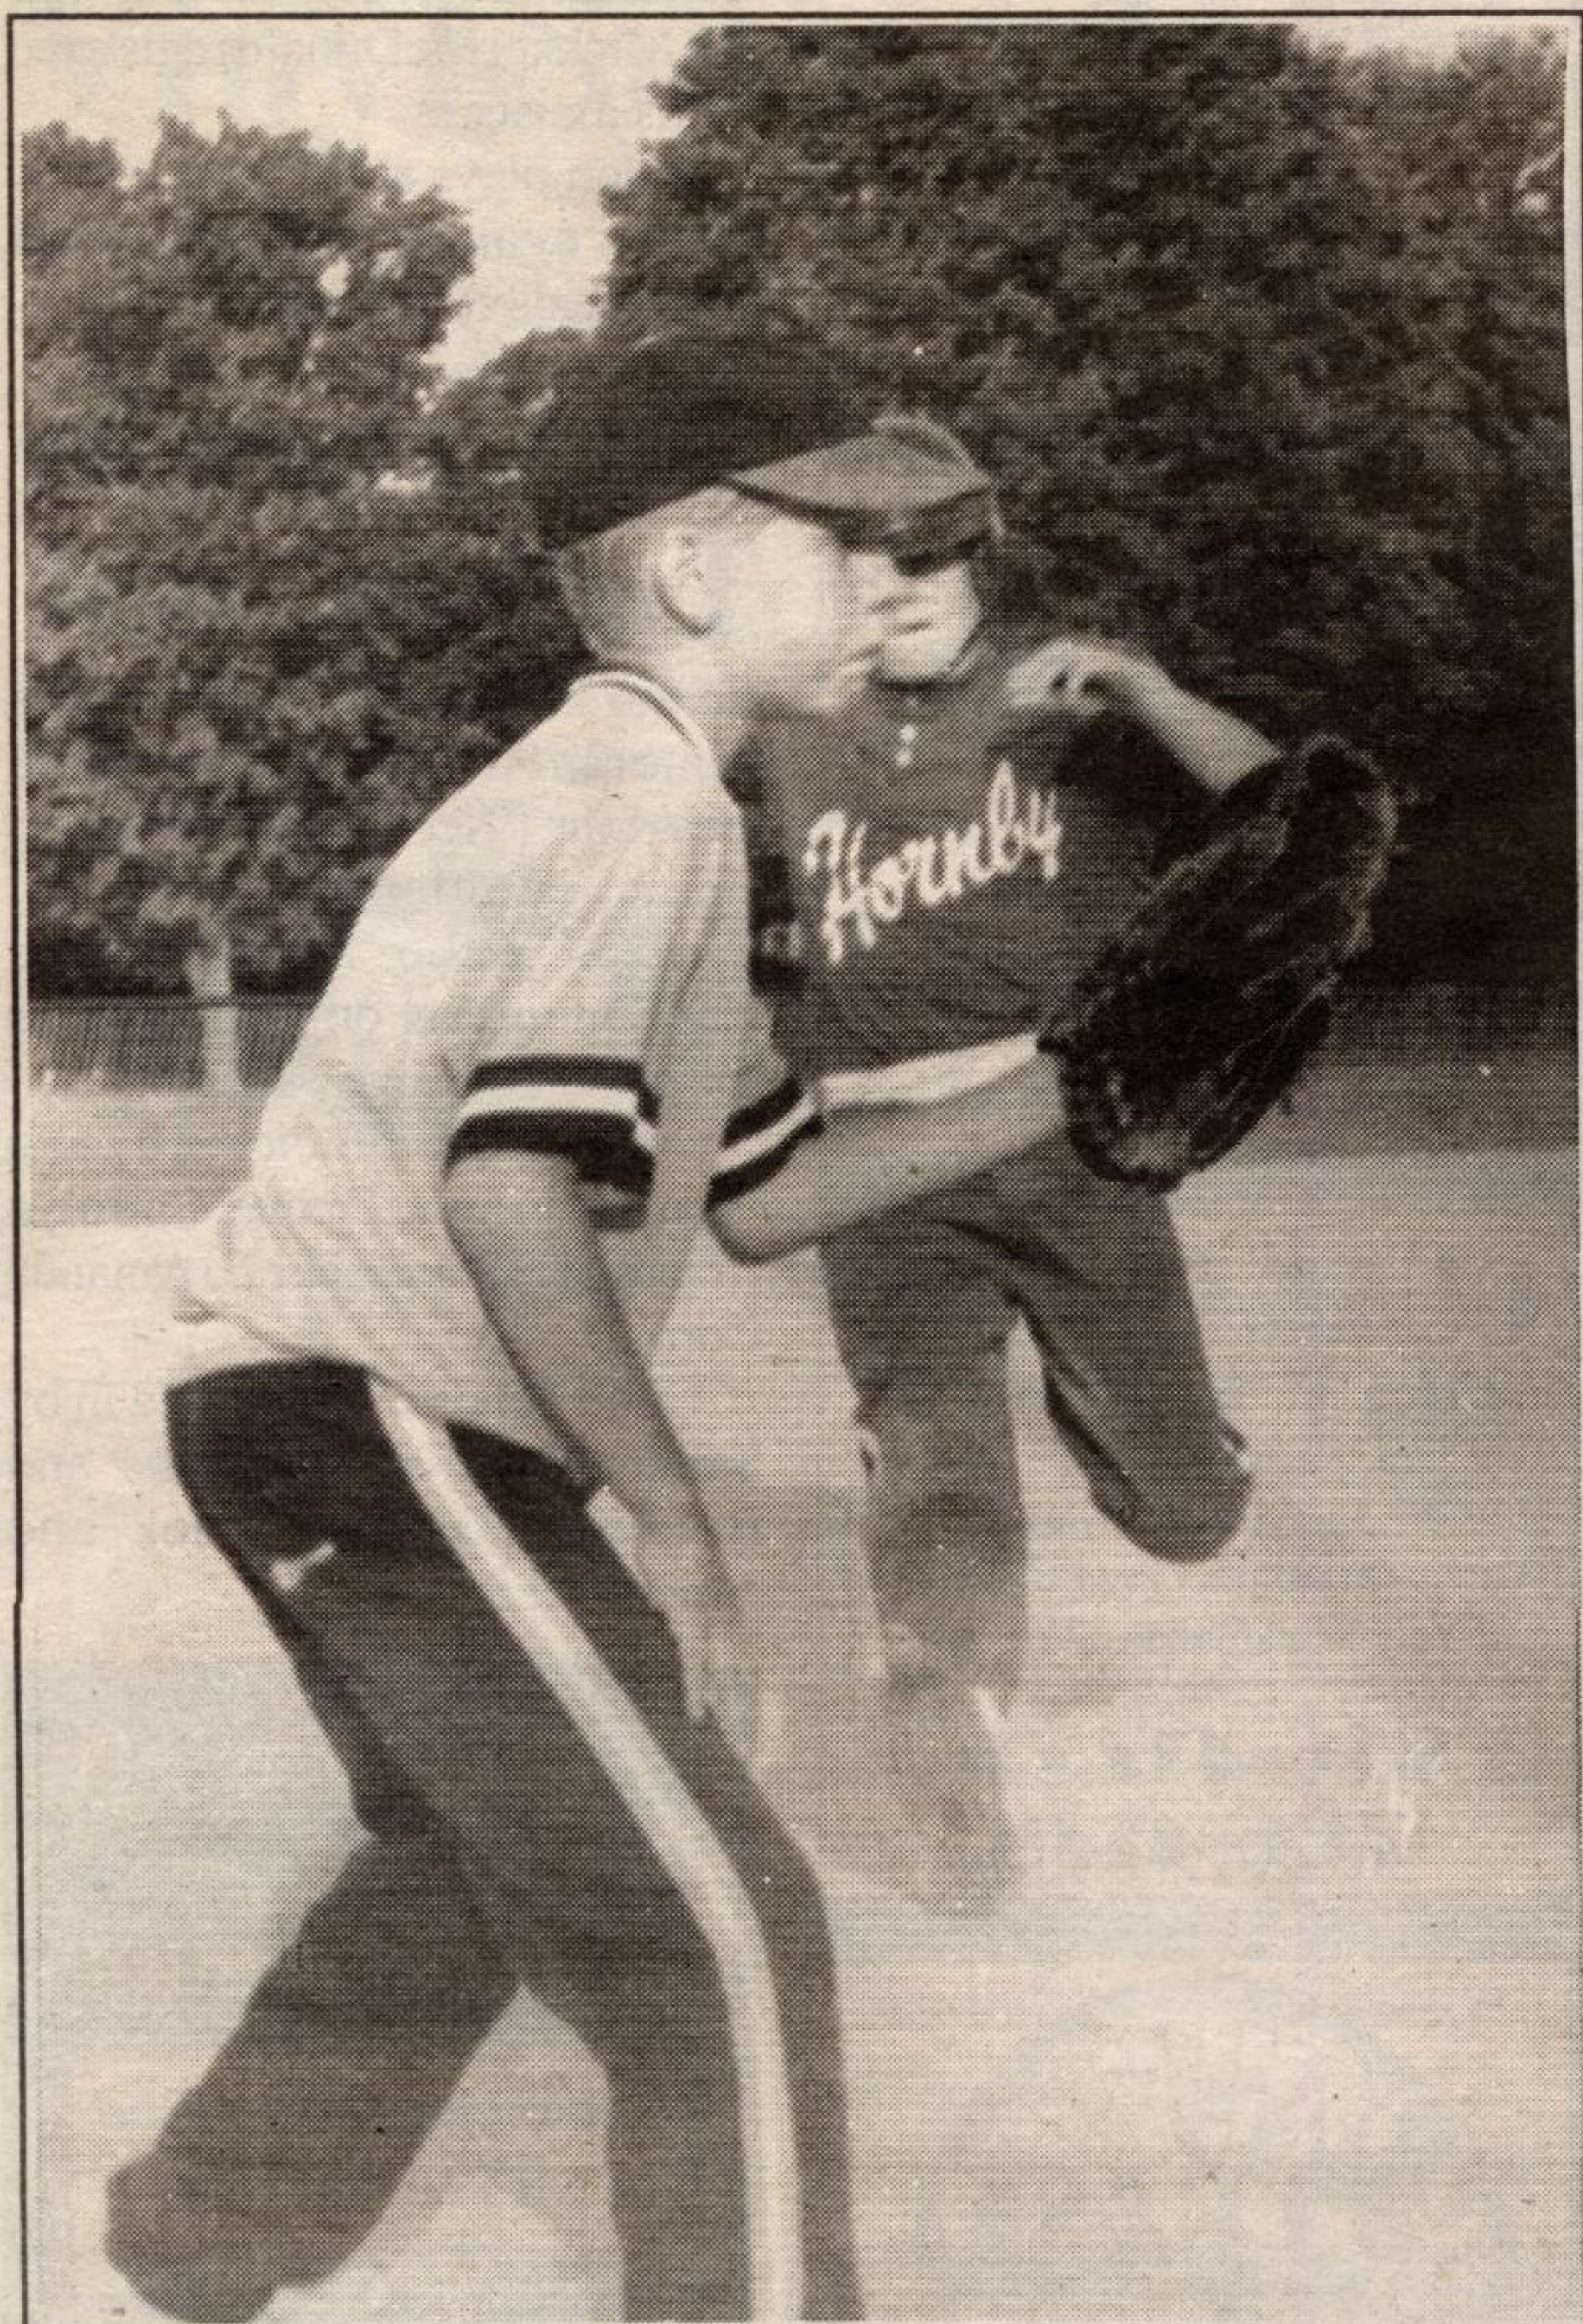

Picking up assists were Artem with three, Raju and Erdelac a pair each and Jason Christopher, Steven Monaghan, Sandy Chapman, Paul Withers, Thomas Wolfer and Andrew Coe with singles.

In the 7-4 win last Monday, Raju relaxed a little, scoring twice in a five-goal second period and later added a third in the third.

Newman, Withers, Weatherall and Scott Monaghan scored one each.

Christopher with three, Artem with two and Erdelac, Chapman and Weatherall counted assists.

Acton plays at the Community Centre tonight (Wednesday) at 9 pm against Guelph.

One's wild in Mini-Squirt play

Mathew Tunney scored the only goal last Monday at M.Z. Bennett as Holland Shop shaded Denny's Insurance 1-0 in Mini-Squirt soccer play.

Eric Corman had several excellent tries for Holland Shop, but failed to hit mesh.

In a losing cause, Joe Douglas and Ben Draper, who was stellar in the Denny's Insurance net, were noted for outstanding play.

Turning in good efforts for the winning team were Kevin Davis and Aaron Boyer.

Excellent netminding by Paul Sharples and Jeff Hirlehey kept Acton Town Milk in the game.

Up front, Simon Sharples was also sharp for Acton Town Milk.

Rockwood's Guelph OPP edged Herrington Printing 1-0.

Strong goaltending by Chris Dennie and Mathew Youngblut kept Herrington's in the game.

Peter Finnie and Mathevw Peruscello also played fantastic for Herrington's.

Williamson pots 3

Nathan Williamson scored three times to lead Acton Pharmacy to an 8-0 win over Eramosa Optimists Monday night at Rockmosa Park in Under-11 soccer play.

Darren Banks added two goals with singles going to Ian Wallis, Jamie Dunn and Cam Sisnett.

Shawn Gray had three assists for the winners. Banks, Sam Brunelle, Mark Chumley, Bruce Milligan and Michael Varanelli had one each.

The Pharmacy goose egg was shared by John Yundt and Dunn.

Mr. Mugs wins

Michael Van Den Hoek scored twice as Mr. Mugs beat Grand Valley 4-0 in recent Under-9 soccer in Grand Valley.

Mathevw Freckleton and Chris Brill added one goal each.
