Festival 'what we needed'

Organizers of Sunday's second annual Leathertown Festival estimated that between two and three thousand people spent some or all of the sunny afternoon at the event.

Crowds enjoyed six hours of entertainment by local dancers and musicians, browsed and shopped at craft tables, and children rode a red double decker bus or miniature train if they weren't trying to win gold fish or other prizes at the game booths.

"It usually rains about this time every year but today the weather was perfect," organizer Janis Fread said Sunday, adding that last year's festival was "not a great day, with miserable weather.

"This year, some people were telling me that this is just what Acton needs now. It was a nice feeling I got from the crowds, and a nice atmosphere."

Dancers from the Acton School of Dance, the 50+ Cloggers and Star Thru Square Dance Club performed non-stop on a stage beside Foodland and popular instrumental numbers from the Acton Citizens' Band closed the festival.

Fread was full of praise for the town's cooperative spirit that helped her and Tourism Committee members Elly Tuitman, Jo Lister and Ashik Piraby organize the event.

Luxurious Family Home

A fashionable stucco exterior is complemented by the addition of gables, palladian-style windows and an elegant raised entrance-way with pillars.

Inside, a spacious foyer receives plenty of natural light from an overhead window. To the left, a sunken living room boasts a vaulted ceiling and a boxed-out feature window. Pillars provide an elegant and subtle division between the living and dining area. The dining room also boasts a bayed-out space for the hutch with glass block accents, a full-size bar and french doors leading out to a covered patio.

An open plan for the kitchen and family room provides a large, comfortable area for less formal gatherings. The gourmet-style kitchen features plenty of cupboard and counter space, a work island with a breakfast bar, a pantry and a carousel breakfast nook. A separate stairwell, just off the foyer, leads up to the games room. Equipped with a closet and a bathroom, the games room could be used as a private guest room.

A curved staircase leads to a deluxe bedroom area. Three secondary bedrooms share a four-piece bathroom with double sinks. Laundry chutes on the main and upper floors send laundry down to the utility room in the basement. The master bedroom is outstanding, with a walk-in closet, a five-piece ensuite with an oversized shower and a raised soaker tub, and french doors which lead out to a private sundeck.

An unfinished basement awaits your own creative touch.

Plans for U-826 may be obtained for $445 for a package of five complete sets of working prints and $39 for each additional set of the same plan.
