

WONDERFUL WEEKEND: IMAGE

THERE SHE IS: Claire Langridge, Miss Acton Fall Fair 1993, is all smiles as she looks out to the large crowd gathered in the Community Centre on Friday night. (Doug Harrison photo)

John White, 22, stands with his Grand Champion heifer after their win in a showmanship class on Saturday. White, a Halton 4-H member from Rockwood, has been with the organization for nine years. (Doug Harrison photo)

Bagpipes are a perennial favourite with Fall Fair crowds. This band thrilled parade-watchers lined up along Mill Street Saturday afternoon. (Doug Harrison photo)

Christopher Galbraith has a good grip on Tyrone — honest! Tyrone was the winner of the biggest dog class and the longest tail class in the pet show on Sunday. (Tony Rouse photo)

The Acton Tanner would like to thank our talented photographers for their wonderful depiction of the 80th Acton Fall Fair. We hope you enjoyed the Fair and we would like to commend the Acton Agricultural Society for their hard work and dedication. The Fall Fair has been an important part of life in Acton for many decades and we are proud to be able to offer you this memory of the 1993 renewal.
— The staff of The Acton Tanner