New books in MZB library

M.Z. BENNETT NEWS

BY NATHAN WILLIAMSON & JESSICA CRAIG

Hurrah! We are BACK! Summer is lots of fun but it can get boring!

At M.Z. Bennett School all the classrooms are looking bright and fresh. The Kindergartens started on Friday, Sept. 17. Welcome Kindergartens!

Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Bannerman and Miss Lawson are having fun doing studies on dinosaurs. Mr. Mashinter got Halton School Board's multi-media Caravan from the North Education Centre. The Caravan includes an overhead projection unit, three MacIntosh computers, a CD-ROM player, and a flatbed scanner. We have it from Sept. 13 to Nov. 16. It's in the library.

Talking about the library, a lot of new books are in the library and Mrs. Andrews would like some helpers if possible. On Friday, Sept. 10 it was Mrs. Graham's birthday.

We went to the Acton Fall Fair. There was Folk Art painting, a petting zoo and people from the fire department. There were Olympics and much more.

Today (Wednesday) we are having the school B.B.Q. and an Open House. We also have Photo Day tomorrow (Thursday). Everyone always looks their best for Photo Day.

Mr. Dorscht hip and happening

ROBERT LITTLE NEWS

BY ERIN LINTON & KENDALL BROWN

Welcome back to school everybody! On Wednesday, Sept. 15, we had our annual barbeque and it went well. Everybody has been having a great time.

We still have our principal, Mrs. Nodwell, and vice principal, Mr. Bell, from last year and we're glad because they are GREAT!

We also have a new teacher named Mme. Coquard and we have some student teachers, named Carolyn Frielink, Laura Gray, Steve Sclater, Lana Brasher, and Cynthia Soutar.

Mr. Dorscht is here. He's hip — he's happenin'. He and Mrs. Denny are going to be starting the Reaching Other Kids group.

R.O.K. will be on Wednesdays. On Friday we went to Education Day at the Acton Fall Fair.

Our first assembly is on Friday. Well, that's all about our school for this week.

Protection for seniors

Criminals often regard older persons as easy targets for many kinds of crimes. Every elderly person should be aware of these crimes and how to prevent them.

Con games and sweet-talk crimes — Pigeon drop: This scheme accounts for more than half of the confidence games reported to the police. The swindlers claim to have found a large sum of money and offer to share it with you. You are asked to withdraw good-faith money from your bank. The swindlers take the "good faith" money and give you a phoney address, where you are to collect your share of the found money. You never see them again.

Bank examiner: A phoney bank examiner contacts you and asks for your help in catching a dishonest bank employee. He asks you to withdraw a specified amount of cash from your account so that he may check the serial numbers. After turning over the money to the examiner, you never hear from him again. More next week.

Constable Riddle's Corner is a weekly feature brought to you by the community-minded businesses surrounding this column. We urge you to strengthen local industry and trade by supporting these businesses.
