Cobblehill Road reconstruction receives go-ahead from Council

The engineering for the reconstruction of Cobblehill Road, from Cook to Main Streets was approved by Halton Hills Council last Monday.

However, no sooner than council acted on the general committee's recommendation from the week before, than Acton Regional Councillor Rick Bonnette put forward the cause of reconstruction of Willow Street North.

Bonnette said that he had received a complaint from a resident about the condition of Willow Street North and he forwarded the complaint to council so that it might discuss it and perhaps include the road on the schedule of work to be undertaken.

Council agreed to hire the Georgetown firm, R.E. Clipsham to provide engineering services for the Cobblehill Road work.

If you don't vote ...

a candidate. One local wag tells me that, on short notice, they were lucky to find a hall to accommodate their supporters. The owner, Bell Canada, gave them a deal on the rent. The operator only asked for seven quarters when they left.

***

The first all-candidates meeting is tomorrow (Thursday) at McKenzie-Smith. Hope to see a good turnout there. It's time for us to examine the candidates' stands on the issues. If you don't know — you can't vote. If you don't vote — don't bitch!
At least, that's the way I see it.

Turner's 'comment card' presumptuous

ers. You were no sooner elected, than you and Michael Wilson came to tell us all how wonderful the GST was going to be.

I thought it was very presumptuous of you to send a "comment card" to your constituents one week before the writ was dropped — at taxpayers' expense — and extremely presumptuous to send me this letter.
