

Halton Hurricanes improve to 5-2

The Halton Hurricane minor Atom AAA hockey team bumped its record to 5-2 on the weekend with wins over Streetsville and Stoney Creek. Earlier in the year, the 'Canes downed Streetsville, Brantford and Welland and fell victim to Brampton twice. On Sunday at home, Acton's Brandon Valente scored twice to lead the Hurricanes over Stoney Creek 6-4.

Acton resident Kyle Lodberg tended goal for the winners. The night before, Valante and fellow Actonite David Brooks scored once each in a 7-1 thumping over visiting Streetsville. Valente also had an assist. Lodberg split netminding duties with Acton's Jason Holmes, an affiliated player. Other affiliated players from Acton are Ryan Weatherall and Steve Barens.

Andy's takes Grand Valley, Milton

Andy's Restaurant Novice II rep hockey team pulled together in the third period on Saturday, scoring two goals to eke out a 6-4 win over Grand Valley in Tri-County play at the Community Centre. Andy's was blessed to have goal production from six players — Jessie Hepburn, Matt Bronizewski, Greg Voisin, Darryl Wright, Colin Sheehan and Peter Glatt. Glatt and Brian Field had two assists apiece, while Joe Dunbar and Michael Borg set up one each. Andy's coach Richard Borg noted that Steve Bronizewski and Reg Henry had excellent outings. On Thursday, Bronizewski scored a hat-trick in a 9-2 win over Milton before the local crowd. Colin Sheehan added two goals. Singles went to Voisin, Wright, Glatt and Joe Brunelle.

Assists went to Borg with three, Wright, Brian Field and Chad Henry with two each, Brunelle, Glatt, Sheehan, Voisin, Hepburn and Kyle Strong.

M-S v-ballers lose in final

BY KELLY HOLMES
M-S Reporter

SUPER-SPIKER: M-S player Sandra Wray prepares to serve on Saturday.

The McKenzie-Smith Mustangs held their Main Event volleyball tournament on Saturday and they didn't disappoint. Attracting teams from Burlington, Oakville, Stewarttown, Georgetown and Milton, the hosts weren't so friendly in Boys' action, however, as they made it to the final against Sherratt of Milton. The Most Valuable Player was Ben Muggridge as teammate Andy Kilmer risked his body making awesome dives, but McKenzie-Smith lost 15-9 and 15-12. The Mustang Boys made it to the final after beating Burlington's Maplehurst 15-6. They also split with the Acton High Midgets, winning 15-11. The Mustang Girls had trouble in their first game against W.I. Dick of Milton, but in the second game they came back to life, beating Maplehurst. Although they didn't make it out of their division to the semi-finals, the Girls did a great job and the Most Valuable Player was Eleni Halis. Super spiker Sandra Wray had 15 spikes.
