Good thing I stayed up!

And there I sat thinking, "Shucks, another late night on Sunday!"

'Twas the last of the ninth and I was seriously thinking I may as well go to bed. But something told me to hang in there and boy was I glad I did, because SLAM! went Joe's bat and the ball was over the wall.

What a tremendous finish for a player and a team. It sure was a series to remember — and such high scores in that crazy Game 4. Way to go, Blue Jays!

On Monday I did my duty and cast my vote. By the time this is in the paper we'll know the outcome, and then later on we'll know if we voted the right way. Guess the next big event will be the Grey Cup game, and then we'll just have hockey. Hey, the Leafs are doing right good by themselves, so let's hope they keep it up!

By the way, is there a senior out there who would like to join the Golden Agers Bowling League? We just need one person who would bowl regularly to complete six teams of six players. It's a league which bowls for fun and sociability ... and for the exercise! The Golden Age Club is going to have a shopping trip on Nov. 9 and there are a few seats empty. We're going to the Dixie Value Mall and then on to Square One. On Dec. 1 it's off to Carmen's for dinner and the Geritol Follies. Of course, the bus is full because this is an excellent show put on by seniors.

We've had to change our plans for our Christmas Party — it's not going to be Nov. 17 as that is the night Knox Church is having their annual dinner, so it's to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 15, starting with a potluck supper at 6 pm and a visit from Santa.

Ladies are to bring gifts for a lady and the men will bring a gift for a man — up to five dollars. It's always a fun night, so you members write it on your calendar.

Can anyone explain why people chatter away during a meeting? It's really not the thing to do, because those around you cannot hear the business being conducted. I hope you aren't the one who is being discourteous.

Beat 'em, bust 'em, that's our custom

McKENZIE-SMITH NEWS

BY KELLY HOLMES

Last week the Girls' volleyball team travelled to Stewarttown, where they tried hard but couldn't come up with the win. Stephanie McKay (Grade 7) was named super-spiker. MVP was Sheri Forbes.

Stewarttown came to Acton and tried to beat our Boys. It was a close game but McKenzie-Smith couldn't hold their own.

On Thursday, W.I. Dick should have stayed home. The McKenzie-Smith Girls whipped them off their feet by scores of 15-3 and 15-9. MVP — all of the girls.

Beat 'em, bust 'em, that's our custom! Go! Fight! win!

The boys went to W.I. Dick with Mr. Featherstone filling in for Mr. Walker. They had an excellent game, coming up with 15-7 and 15-1 wins.

Our shirt's too loose, our belt's too tight, our hips swing from left to right. Say hay hungwa, our team's got the power. Saying bang bang mustangs!

Saturday the Girls and Boys teams travelled to E.C. Drury in Milton, for an all-day tournament. Both teams came up short of the semi-finals but enjoyed a full day of great volleyball. Kelly Holmes was selected as super-spiker of the day for the McKenzie-Smith Girls along with Ben Muggridge for the Boys. MVPs were Eleni Halis and Jeff Birrell.

Good job by Sheri Forbes, Kristen Finley, Lindsay Almand, Andre Savard, Ryan Gallagher and Shaun Lockwood.

Have a fun, safe Halloween
Generally in Acton Halloween is a fun night for the kids. By being careful and using common sense Halloween can be a safe, happy time.
I have added a few suggestions that should help if children are going out to "trick or treat."
1. Make sure small children are accompanied, preferably by an adult.
2. Costumes that are light in colour or have reflective tape will help to make the child more visible to vehicle drivers.
3. Avoid masks with obstructed vision. Preferably use face make-up.
4. Go along one side of the street. Do not criss-cross from one side to the other.
5. Parents should carry an extra treat sack or two. Young children tend to drag things along the ground causing holes.
Extra patrols of police and volunteers will be on the streets to help keep the children safe.
Have a really fun, safe Halloween.
