

Bants capture 2 of 3; Metcalfe earns shutout

Acton Ed's In and Out Bantams took two of three games last week and netminder James Metcalfe recorded a shutout.

The locals disposed of Arthur 5-3 on the road Sunday in their last Bantam "D" Tri-County hockey game of the week.

Derrick McIntyre and Greg Richmond scored two goals apiece to pace the winners. Brian McIntyre hit the scoresheet by potting a single marker.

Scott MacDonald and Adam Petch helped set up two goals each for the Acton side.

Singles went to Nick Vancek, Ryan Valente and Derrick McIntyre.

The Acton scoring machine wasn't operating at its full capacity all week, though.

The night before at the Community Centre, MacDonald and Petch teamed to feed Derrick McIntyre, but that was the locals' lone goal in a 5-1 loss to visiting Grand Valley.

Last Monday, Ed's In and Out kicked off their successful week with a 6-0 crushing of Elora at the Community Centre.

Greg Richmond scored twice, while Valente, Petch, Brian McIntyre and Ryan Preuter added singles.

Philip and Derrick McIntyre chipped in with two helpers each. Valente, Louis Mastro and Nick Vanegmond had one assist each.

Boycott leads Firefighters

The Acton Firefighter Bantam hockey squad almost set off alarms last week with their play.

They scored five third-period goals on Friday to pummel Orangeville 7-3 on the road.

Chris Williams fired two goals for the winners. Singles went to Matt Boycott, Tim Bonus, Steve White, Trevor Malloy and Marty McKinnon.

Grabbing assists were Williams, Bonus, Jon Routledge, Aaron Forrest, Adam DaPonte, Scott McIntyre and Jason Pembleton.

Last Wednesday, Matt Boycott bagged a hat-trick in the Firefighters' 5-0 thumping over Erin at the Community Centre.

McKinnon and Bonus also scored.

White and McKinnon with two led the assist department. Boycott, Dave Clark and Jason Pembleton had single helpers.

The Firefighters' next home game is tonight (Wednesday) against Oakville. Game time is 8:30 pm.
