

Sure, You Could Live Your Life Without Hometown News ...

I love The Tanner. I love Legion news, Seniors news, Letters to the Editor — I look forward to every Wednesday because that's the day The Tanner comes. All the other free papers from Georgetown go straight into the recycle box, but I wouldn't be without The Tanner!

— Beatrice Benson, Mill Street

I applaud the fact that we have such an important community focus in The Acton Tanner. It's something that we need more of in today's world, and that wonderful sense of community is evident in The Tanner — in the stories every week about people in our home town.

— Keith Black, R.R. 4, Rockwood

Our whole family reads The Tanner the minute it arrives at our front door. We wait for it to come every Wednesday. I just think it's a great paper.

— Trish Somerville, Willow Street

Our family reads The Tanner from Page 1 right through to the back every week. My son plays minor hockey and he can't wait to see his game report in the Sports section each week. There's no comparison between The Tanner and other locally-distributed newspapers.

— Rick Boychuk, Norman Avenue

The Acton Tanner is great. When I get The Tanner I just think to myself, "This is my paper, about my town and people I know."

— Dot Roach, Maria Street

The Acton Tanner has played a crucial role in the restructuring of our local St. John Ambulance; all the support we received to revive the brigade came through The Tanner. The editorial staff at the newspaper is great. All I can really say is congratulations to the Acton Tanner.

— Yvon Essiembre, St. John Ambulance

Other area papers seem sometimes to be not much more than community bulletins, but The Tanner offers more than just surface treatment of issues. Its research and quality of real news is top-notch. We really do like it, and my husband is always quoting something out of The Tanner.

— Jan Mowbray, R.R. 2, Rockwood

I think it's wonderful to have a paper like The Acton Tanner published just for our town. I love the local news on people and businesses. I also enjoy the sports coverage, because my grandsons play minor hockey in town.

— Betty Lockerbie, Kingham Road

It's a great paper — all about Acton. People come to the IGA every Wednesday and wait in line for The Tanner to arrive.

— Mike Manes, Acton IGA

I think it's wonderful that we have a local paper as good as The Acton Tanner. I offer my congratulations to The Tanner on being the real voice of our community. This newspaper has such an important role in our town now; it really binds the community together.

— Joan Waldie, R.R. 2, Acton

I like the fact that The Tanner concentrates on Acton news. It is a very well-written newspaper, and my wife and I really do appreciate the quality.

— Geoff Moon, Acton Red Cross

I had no hesitation in subscribing to The Tanner, and I have been very pleased with what I get for my money. I find that The Tanner actually searches for community news, rather than waiting for the community to come and ask for coverage. I also appreciate the follow-up that The Tanner gives to news stories.

— Eileen Dix, Rosemary Road

I read a lot of newspapers, but it is refreshing to read The Tanner because of its local news content. That's the best thing about The Tanner, and it's also the biggest difference between it and other papers.

— Dave Whiting, School Board Trustee

I read The Tanner because it focuses on Acton issues. The Tanner is owned and staffed by Acton people and has a genuine home town flavour. I make a point of patronizing Tanner advertisers specifically because I wish to support The Tanner.

— David Chapman, R.R. 3, Acton

We really don't get anything out of other newspapers that come to our door, but we subscribe to The Tanner because it's terrific local news. It always arrives on time and we can't wait to read it every week.

— Lynda Bowen, Wynford Place

But Can You Really Do Without the Sports?
