Bants struggle in tourney; shine in rep league play

Acton's Tri-County Bantams received excellent goaltending from Michael Kempton at a tournament in Flesherton on Saturday.

It was the struggle of putting pucks past the opposing netminders that saw the locals fall in both their games.

Acton opened the tournament with a slim 2-1 loss against Kin-cardine.

Gary Genzler, from Chris Williams, scored the lone goal for the local side. James Metcalfe was noted for his strong play.

In their second game, the Bants were clipped by Georgetown 3-2 in overtime.

Adam DaPonte and Jason Pembleton found the Georgetown net.

Acton, though, had no trouble scoring in an 8-8 league game at the Community Centre last Wednesday against Arthur in Harrison Division action.

Williams, DaPonte and Marty McKinnon scored twice each, while Steve White and Tim Bonus collected singles.

White registered three helpers, while Scott McIntyre and Matt Boycott had two each.

Singles went to Pembleton,

Genzler, Bonus, Aaron Forrest, Paul Dale, Trevor Malloy and Jon Routledge.

Acton opened the week last Monday with a convincing 4-1 win over Erin on the road.

Routledge scored two goals for the winners. Genzler and Williams, with the game-winner, potted the others.

Assists went to Bonus, Williams, DaPonte, Dale and Mark Faseruk.

Acton's next home game is tonight (Wednesday) against Elora. Game time at the Community Centre is 8:30.

Chapman stars as Galvcast Peewees lose nail-biter

The Acton Galvcast Peewee I hockey team lost a 6-5 heart-breaker to Elora last Tuesday.

The local side led 2-0 after one period on goals by David Lajeunesse and Sandy Chapman.

Kyle Artem set up Lajeunesse, while Chris Seeds fed centre Chapman for the latter's sixth goal in 13 games.

Elora narrowed the Acton lead to 3-2 after two periods.

Chapman scored his second from Chris Yeatman.

However, with Acton missing some of its better-skilled players, a stronger and bigger Elora squad wore down the locals in the final period. They potted three unanswered goals to seal the win.

In all, five goals were scored in the game's final five minutes.

Yeatman and Chapman, who completed his hat-trick, tallied for the 7-5-1 Galvcasters in the final frame.

Assists went to Chapman and Daryn McIntyre.

Chapman was named the Galvcast offensive star, while goalie Thomas Wolfer made several tough saves to keep the game close.

Proplastex Atoms scorching hot

The Atom II Proplastex rep team put together their most successful week of the 1993-94 hockey season last week — a three-game stretch that saw them win twice and tie the other.

Proplastex tied Fergus 3-3 last Wednesday, thumped Arthur 6-1 on Saturday and nipped Elora 2-1 in Elora on Sunday.

The latest encounter stood 1-0 Elora until six minutes, 53 seconds into the third period, when Adam Bosch connected. He was set up by Jared Hornick and Darren Banks.

Stephen Monaghan notched the insurance marker for the Acton side, off a pass from the stick of Jeff Schouten.

With the win, Proplastex evened its record at 5-5-4 at the season's midpoint.

On Saturday, the locals avenged a previous loss and tie to beat Arthur 6-1.

Jeff Payne led the Acton Atoms, hammering home a pair of markers and a single assist.

Ian Wallis a goal and three assists, while other goals were scored by Monaghan, Jamie Warren and Graham Marsh.

Assists went to Bosch, Ryan Turpin and Thomas Mahon.

Chad Greenwood was outstanding in both weekend contests, according to Acton coaches.

Ed's are first after 9th straight win

Acton's Ed's In 'N Out Bantams won their ninth hockey game in a row on Saturday and now sit atop the Tri-County Bantam D-Division standings with a 10-4-3 record.

Philip McIntyre scored the hat-trick to power the locals to a 4-1 win over Grand Valley. Ryan Preuter notched the other goal.

Derrick McIntyre recorded three assists for the winners. Singles went to Preuter, Philip McIntyre, Ryan Seeds and Louis Mastro.

Sterling Luedee was sharp in the Ed's In 'N Out net.

Last Wednesday, goals from Adam Petch, Greg Richmond, Derrick McIntyre, Nick VanEgmond and Ryan Valente helped the locals defeat Grand Valley 5-3.

Mastro contributed two assists, while Petch, Richmond, Philip McIntyre and Derrick McIntyre had one helper each.
