

Sabres dump Fergus 5-1 for 13th win

The Nellis Construction Novice I Sabres grabbed two out of a possible four points last week with a 5-1 victory over Fergus and 2-1 loss to Erin-Hillsburgh.

On Friday, the 13-4-3 Sabres travelled to Erin to battle the Devils. In three previous matches this year, each team recorded a win with a tie sandwiched in between.

Erin drew first blood in the first minute, scoring on a screened shot from the blue line.

It remained a see-saw affair until Sabre player John Field scored a shorthanded marker from Andrew Pembleton and Mike McDonald.

Tied at 1-1, Erin pressured the visitors, dominating the first half of the third period. They eventually scored a power-play goal to take a 2-1 lead.

The pesky Sabres had several chances to even the game, but time was against them.

Last Wednesday, Mike Dube scored twice. John Field, Shawn Prentice and Steve Atkinson scored singles against Fergus.

Recording two assists each were Atkinson, McDonald, Chris Jowett and David Lyons. Adam Brouillard had one.

McKinnon scores 3

Marty McKinnon scored three goals to power the Acton Fire-fighter Bantams past Milton 6-1 last Wednesday at the Community Centre in Tri-County Harrison Division hockey action.

Other goals came off the sticks of Scott McIntyre, Gary Genzler and Jon Routledge.

Registering assists were Matt Boycott and Chris Williams with two apiece, McIntyre, Genzler, Routledge, Steve White, Nick VanEgmond and Paul Dale.

Last Monday, the Firefighters fell behind 2-0 to Elora in the first period and failed to mount a comeback in dropping a 6-4 decision.

Trevor Malloy off a Jason Pembleton pass got the visiting Firefighters on the board in the second period. However, Elora scored four times for a 6-1 lead after two periods.

McKinnon with two and Steve White fired third period goals to make the game close.

Counting helpers were Malloy, Pembleton, Williams, Adam DaPonte and Dave Clark.

Ed's grabs win No. 14

Derrick McIntyre's four goals led the Ed's In 'N Out Bantams to a convincing 6-1 win over Elora on Saturday in a Tri-County D-Division hockey game.

With the win, the locals upped their record to 14-4-2.

Adam Petch and Shawn Monaghan also scored.

Scott MacDonald, Louis Mastro and Philip McIntyre headed the winning assist department with three each. Nick Vancek, Nick VanEgmond and Greg Richmond contributed single helpers.

In a recent game, Acton fell 5-1 to Arthur.

Ed's In 'N Out next sees action on Saturday at the Community Centre against Arthur. Game time is 7:45 pm.

Midgets ride comeback trail

Just call them the comeback kids.

The Acton Travel hockey Midgets showed character, rebounding from a 3-0 deficit last Tuesday to edge Erin 6-5 for their second come-from-behind win in a week.

Brad Cripps scored twice to knot the score at 4-4 heading to the final frame at the Community Centre. Josh Davies and Josh Marcoux also scored.

Acton assists went to Davies and Chris Muir with two each.

Wilf Couling and Cripps, who completed his hat-trick with the game-winning goal, rounded out the Acton scoring.

Scott Glass came up with some big saves to preserve the win.

In recent action, Acton, dressing only 10 players, scored two goals in the final five minutes to draw Elora 4-4 in Elora.

Scoring were Chris Muir with two, Couling and Duane Piper.

Assists went to Davies with two, Couling and Darryl Jones.

Brian Denny was superb in goal.

TAKE A BOW

Because of you, newspaper and flyer insert recovery in households with Blue Box service is an incredible 75%. Because of you, those newspapers - 250,000 tonnes of them - didn't end up in landfill. How much money did that save Ontario municipalities last year? Millions of dollars. Add that to the more than $6 million revenue generated from the sale of a quarter of a million tonnes of old newspapers, and the cost of collecting newspapers through the Blue Box is more than covered. Surprised? Well, now that you know, take a bow.

Recycling newspapers and flyer inserts is a real Ontario success story. Thanks to you.
