

Rowsell fires 5 goals for Nellis

HOUSE LEAGUE HOCKEY

PEEWEE

Acton Auto Tech and M & M Pro Sports battled to a 2-2 draw at the Community Centre on Saturday in Pee wee house league hockey play.

Nathan Irving took care of Auto Tech's scoring in tight-checking game.

Peter Drexler with two and Rob Bonus recorded assists.

Mike Goldwick and Brett Timakus replied for M & M Pro Sports.

Assists went to Josh Wilson, David Brown, Bryan McAnsh and Ben Muggridge. Matt Wilson was named M & M Pro Sports' player of the game for his heads-up play.

In the other Pee wee contest, Derek Nolan scored four goals for Washington in their 8-1 hammering of Craigwood Farms.

Joey Zinke added a hat-trick and Chad Edwards potted a single.

Zinke and Curtis Archibald led the winners with three assists each. Others were supplied by Nolan and Blair Williamson with two and Edwards.

Chris Adema, with help from Brian Coles and Mike Hastings, notched the lone Craigwood marker.

ATOM

Joey Thompson, the league scoring leader, pocketed the hat-trick and his third goal with 19 seconds left as Mike Luty Transport duelled Mr. Mugs 3-3 on Saturday in Atom action.

Grabbing assists were Paul Payne, Joey McGrath, Adam Durski and Adam Lindsay.

Eric Gilmour made a spectacular save in the dying seconds to keep the tie intact.

Solid defensive showings were turned in by Lindsay, Joey McGrath, David McEnery, Jay Waples and Nathan Williamson.

Sam Burnell countered with two goals for Mr. Mugs, while Paul Schiller scored the other.

Assists were awarded to Shane Haslam, Nathan French, Simon Drexler and Matt Hall.

Robert Morris had a great game against the high-scoring Mike Luty outfit.

Mike Rowsell racked up five goals as Nellis Construction pounded Mike and Al's Transport 8-2 in the other Atom matchup.

Arron Beck, Robbie MacMillan and Eric Sousa also scored.

Sousa and Robbie Price set up the Beck marker.

Ryan Bowen and David White scored in a losing cause.

Bowen and Phil Scott combined to help White score.

NOVICE

Brendan Dick scored twice and assisted on another as MacKenzie-Chapman beat MacMillan's 4-1 in Novice play at the Community Centre on Saturday.

Mike Vandenhoeck rounded out the MacKenzie-Chapman scoring.

Taylor Seads, Adrian Chabassol and Matt Dayman were credited with assists.

Brad West, with Eric Sloane and Chris Foster assisting, found the net for MacMillan's.

In the other Novice game, Acton Galvcast's Andrew Robitaille scored all his team's goals in their 3-3 tie against Legion Branch 197.

Derek Scott and Trevor Hall assisted on Robitaille's third goal.

Scoring for the Legion were Dwayne Gregson, Michael Gerrow and Neal Dawkins.

Gerrow, Matthew Gardner and Michael Gerrow helped set up goals.

TYKE

Tyler Holmes paced Al and Al's Red Brand Meats with six goals in his team's 8-3 throttling of Acton Terminal Warehouse in Tyke action at the Community Centre on Saturday.

Troy Ethier and Denise Hunak fired the other Al and Al's goals.

Patrick Collins led with two assists. Cameron Martin had the other.

Robbie Rolf scored twice for A.T.W. Joel Graydon, who was assisted by Andrew Marcoux and Brandon Glendenning, also scored.

In other games, A & S Engraving's Kyle Winters scored three goals to lead his team past McIntyre Fuels 7-4.

Also scoring were Michael Kuiprey with two, Brad Near and Steven Terry.

Assists went to Terry and Jonathan Cimetta with three, Winters and Greg Henry with a pair each, Kuiprey, Near and Dylan Medland.

Nicky Newby and Reid Hendry split the McIntyre Fuels scoring.

Newby added two assists, as did Kody Killingbeck and Travis Montagner. Josh Locke set up his squad's first goal.

Both teams received stellar goaltending.

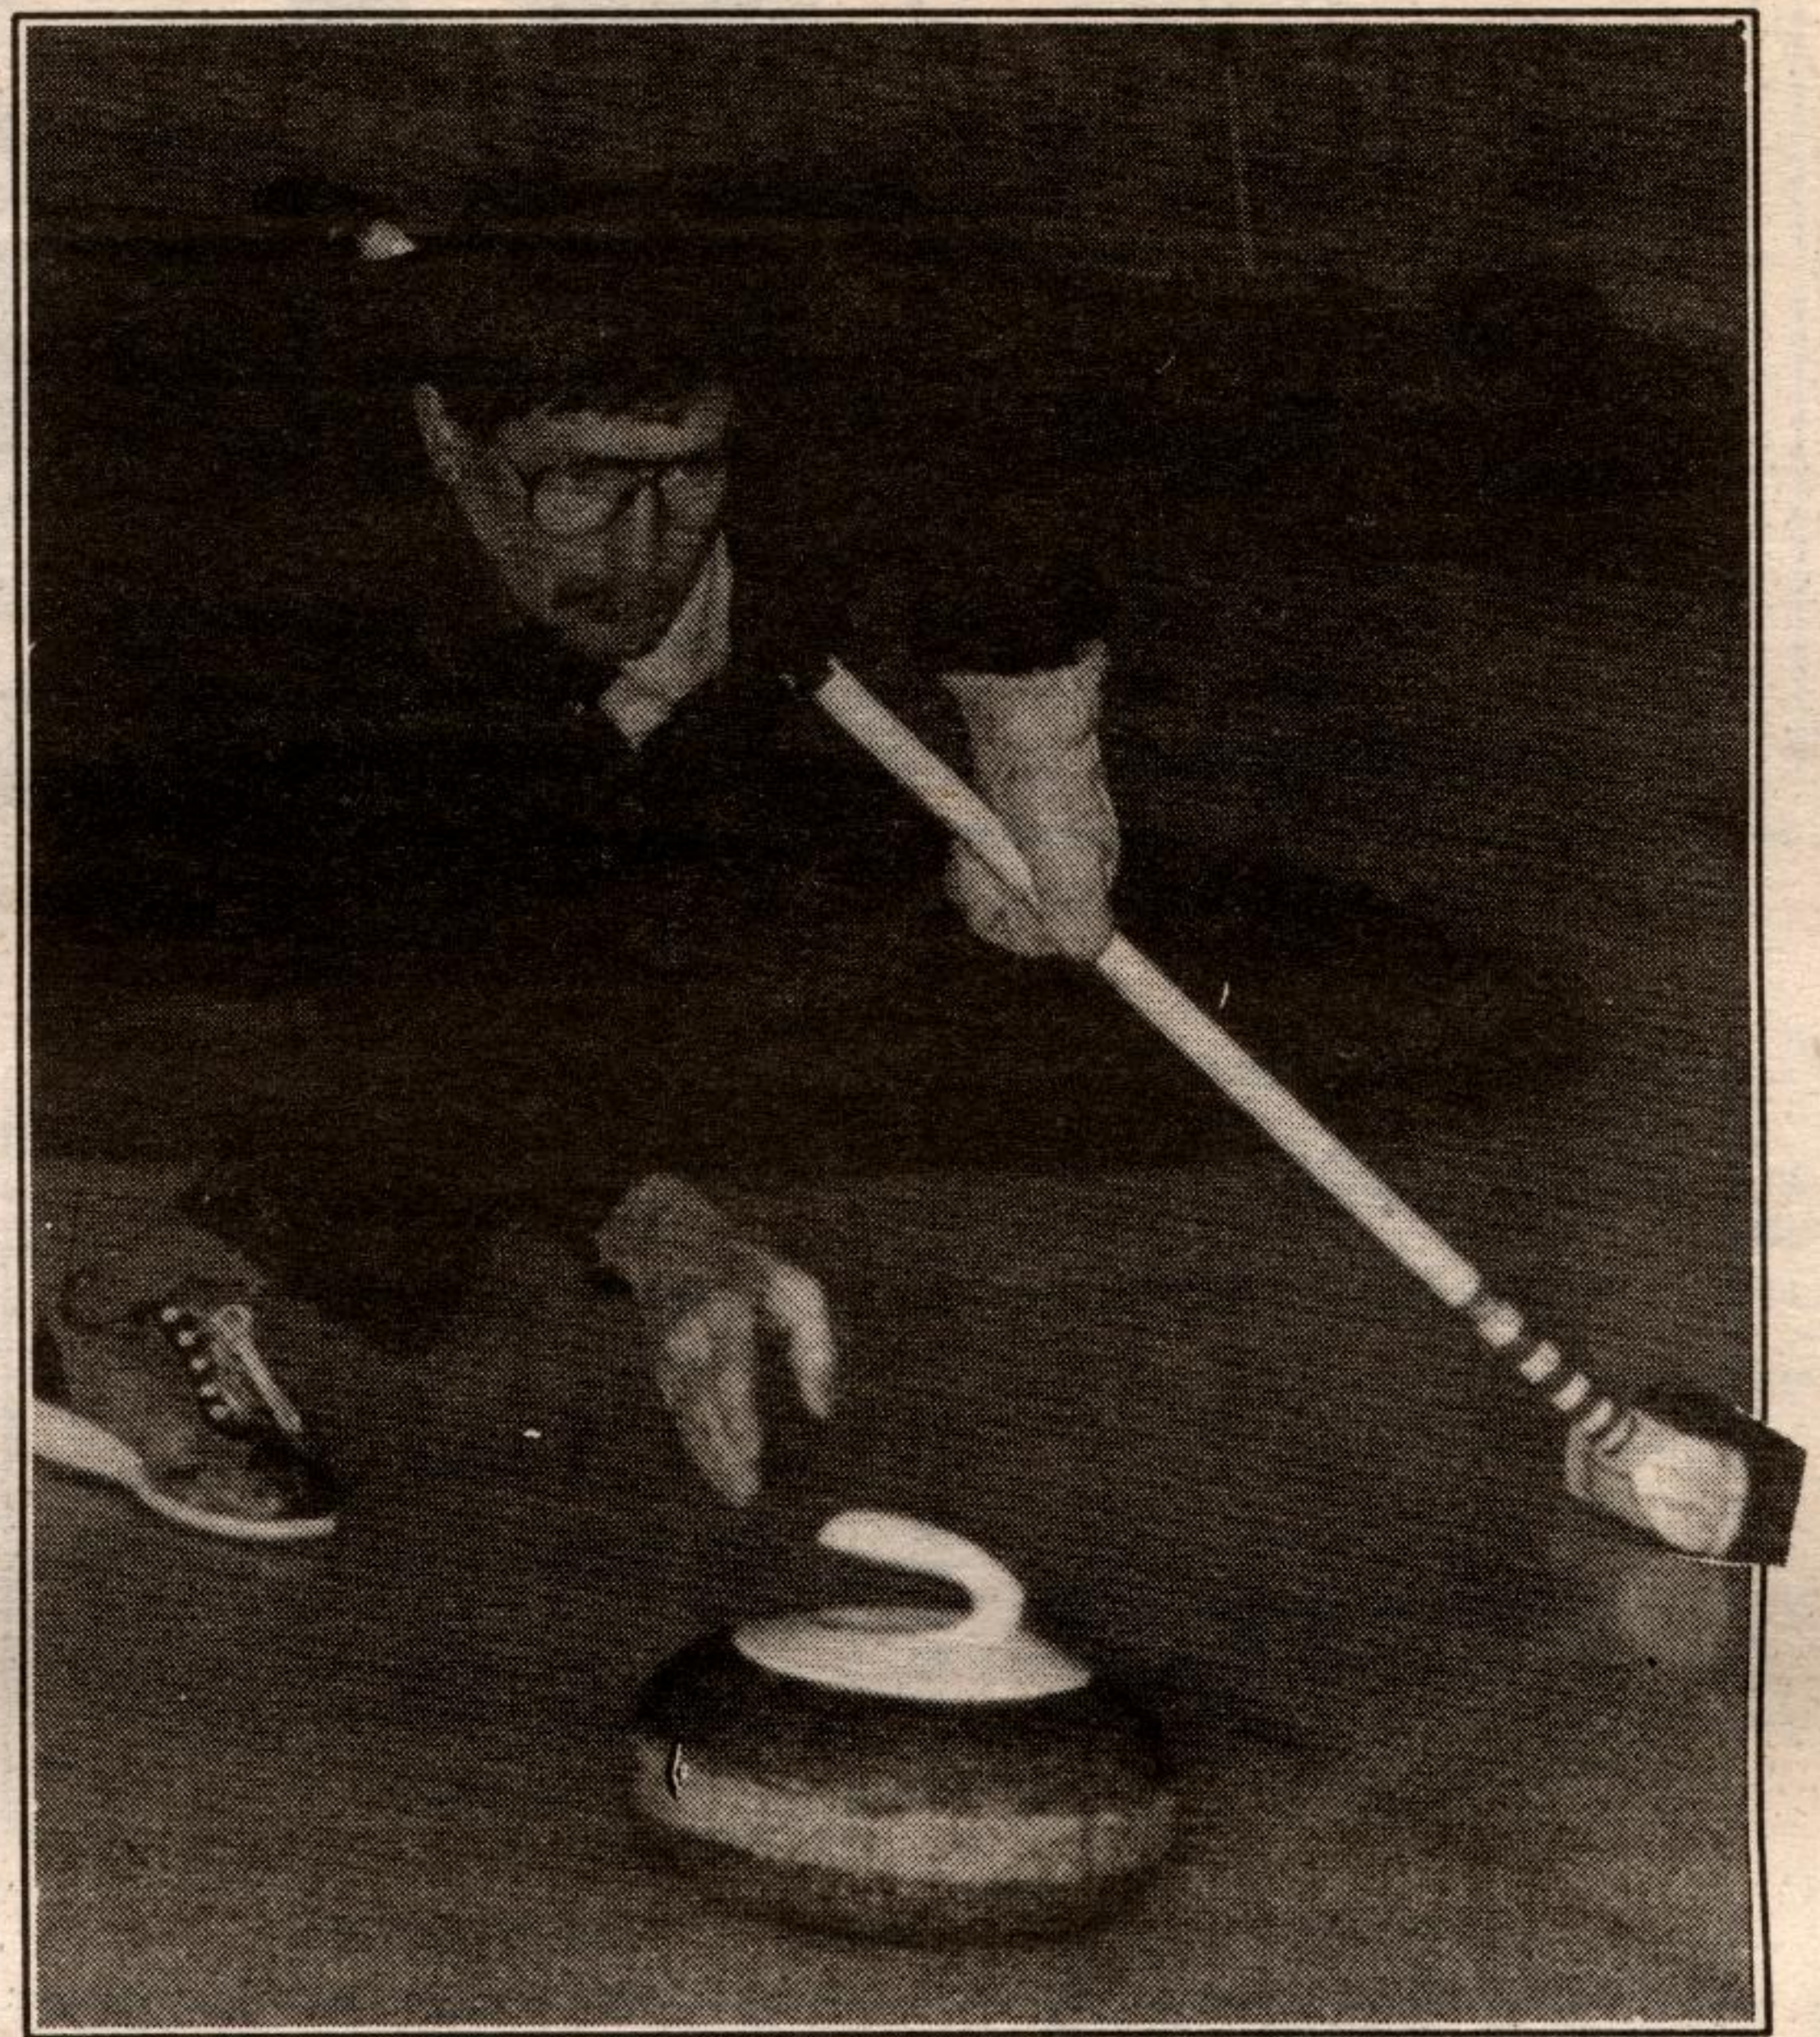

Tim Pembleton scored seven goals and added an assist in Best Transfer's 10-4 thumping of Halton Hills Furniture.

Kyle McDonald with two and Kurtis McArthur finished the scoring.

Hitting the scoresheet with assists were McArthur, Patrick Glatt, Chad Neville, Garrat Williams and Michael Kellas.

Michael Wood banged home two goals in a losing cause. Michael Bently and D'Arcy O'Driscoll had singles.

Assists went to Wood, O'Driscoll, Scott Williams and Kyle Marshall.

AHS curlers win

The Acton High curling team of Steve Turkosz (skip), vice skip Kent Stuckey, Chris Cullen (second) and lead Dave Moore had their best outing Monday.

After suffering in the early portion of the first end against Oakville's Blakelock High, Acton managed to score a point to take an early lead.

In the second end, the locals stole a point and then proceeded to snatch two more in the fourth and another in the fifth end.

In sixth end play, Acton ran Blakelock out of rocks and left Oakville with a 5-0 victory.

With the win, Acton's record improved to 2-0, tops in their division.

The locals' next match is slated for Jan 3.
