

Flaming Bantams take Oakville 4-2

The Acton Firefighter Bantams doubled Oakville 4-2 in a recent Tri-County Harrison Division hockey game at the Community Centre.

After a scoreless first period, Firefighters Gary Genzler and Trevor Malloy found the net to give the home team a 2-0 lead after two periods.

Aaron Forrest and Sandy Chapman assisted on the Genzler goal, while Chris Williams registered the helper on the Malloy marker.

Jason Pembleton and Adam Daponte added third-period goals. Daponte and Malloy teamed to set up Pembleton's score. Williams, with his second assist, and Pembleton set up DaPonte.

In another recent game, Marty McKinnon's two goals helped the Firefighters gain a 3-3 tie with Milton on the road.

Pembleton added the other with help from Malloy. Assisting on the McKinnon goals were Dave Clark and Matt Boycott.

The Firefighters' next home game is tonight (Wednesday) against Georgetown. Game time at the Community Centre is 8:30.

Bantams outclassed

The Ed's In 'N Out rep Bantams were outscored and outclassed at the recent Silver Stick hockey tournament in Watford, Ont.

In three games, Acton was whalloped 7-1, 7-0 and prevailed 5-4 in a shootout.

"We had a strong team effort from everyone. We played teams from smaller centres, but they were their major teams and we sent our second team," says Acton Sabres president Dave McIntyre. "It was good hockey to watch."

The local Bants started the tourney last Tuesday with a game against Thedford, falling 7-1.

Philip McIntyre, with help from Adam Petch and Greg Richmond, scored the lone Ed's goal.

Derrick McIntyre scored the game-winner in a shootout in Game 2 on Thursday against Port Edward. The game ended 5-4 on McIntyre's second goal of the game. He also added an assist.

Louis Mastro, Brian McIntyre and Philip McIntyre also scored.

Petch and Philip McIntyre led the winners with two assists each. Singles went to Shawn Monaghan and Ryan Valente.

Ed's was soundly defeated 7-0 on Saturday by Felderton.

A special thank-you goes to the Acton parents who drove extra players about 1,200 kilometres total for the holiday tournament.

Meanwhile, Ed's In 'N Out had no time to rest upon their return home. A league match with Arthur was slated for Sunday.

Philip McIntyre found the net twice in a 2-2 tie.

Derrick McIntyre and Scotty MacDonald contributed assists on both goals.

With the tie, Ed's remains atop the Bantam standings.

Eddie Shore: The Darth Vader of hockey

Eddie Shore was called the "Edmonton Express". He was a Hall of Famer, and back in the '20s and '30s he was a super-duper, super star. When he played for the Boston Bruins, (just listen to these stats), he was M.V.P. of the NHL in 1933, 35, 36, and 38; first All Star in 1931, 32, 33, 35, 38, and 39; he was a Stanley Cup winner and naturally a Hall of Famer and as tough as they come.

He was rushing defenceman, something unheard of. Back in those days, a defenceman was told to stay back and defend the goal. Not Eddie. He would skate like the wind and he owned the puck when he had it on his stick. The next defenceman to do this was 30 years later - a young man called Bobby Orr. Bobby will tell you he wasn't the first rushing defenceman, it was Eddie Shore.

Eddie was absolutely fearless and never backed down. Just listen to this game he had with Montreal: first a Montreal player cut Eddie on the cheek, then ripped his chin, then they smacked him in the mouth and knocked out some teeth. All told in the game, Eddie had a slice over the eye about an inch and a half long, a broken nose, three teeth gone, and another slice over the cheek. He should have been in the hospital for a month, but Eddie never missed a game - in fact he played the very next game.

Eddie's thresh-hold of pain was unbelievable. Once he skated a whole game with cuts that required 18 stitches. He had his leg stitched up and he played the first period. The stitches broke open again and he kept playing with the blood trailing him around the ice. (Can you imagine that today?)

Stay tuned for more tales of Eddie Shore next week!
