YAWNING CAGE: An Acton Sabres Atom I rep hockey player prepares to fire the puck over fallen Acton house league Select goaltender Dan Hasting, while Select Jason Rumford (6) prevents opponent Steven Barends (9) from penetrating the crease area. The reps thumped the house team, which was sponsored by Mr. Mugs, 7-2 in the Bronze medal game of the fourth annual Acton Atom rep tournament at the Community Centre last Tuesday. (Tony Rouse photo)

Hurricanes lose Milton tourney

The Halton Minor Atom AAA Hurricanes picked the wrong game in the Milton Beaver hockey tournament last week to not capitalize. The Canes outshot and outplayed Windsor in the final contest on Thursday, but had to settle being finalists and not champions. "Their goalie played well and we either missed the net or hit a defenceman," said Hurricanes coach Scott Withers after the 3-0 loss. Withers, an Acton resident, pulled his goalie at 2-0 in the end-to-end game, but to no avail. Doubling Guelph 4-2 last Wednesday gave the Hurricanes a berth in the final. In other games, the Hurricanes blasted Streetsville 7-2 in their opener last Monday, lost to Guelph 4-1 last Tuesday and last Wednesday tied Windsor 3-3. "We played well. It was our first tournament action and we played disciplined hockey," said Withers. "Windsor had players who have played AAA hockey since they were kids. They don't give up when the play goes to the corners, while sometimes our guys will." There were some fine performances from local players. Kyle Lodberg won the goaltending segment of the tourney skills competition. For his effort he received a Doug Gilmour autograph. Acton's Brandon Valente and David Brooks were half the four-man Skate 'N Skills relay team that finished second to Windsor. Valente also picked up three Most Valuable Player awards. He was selected MVP in the first round-robin game and in both the semi-final and final games. "He stepped his game up a bit and backchecked really well," praised Withers, who added the opposing coaches selected Valente as the Canes' MVP.
