ROBERT LITTLE NEWS

BY BECKY CHAPMAN & THOMAS MAHON

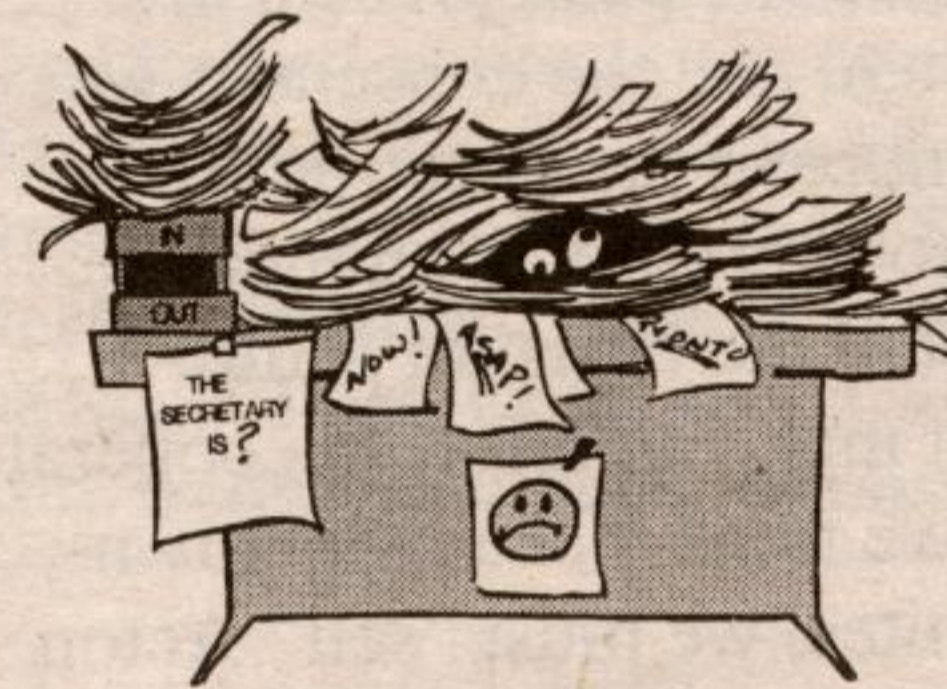

Just a few days after school started in January, one of the water pipes in our school froze and broke. School was cancelled for the day because we had no water.

The next week, the Grade 1 class took a trip to Mountsberg and followed a program called Winter Animals. During the same week some of the Grade 4 and 5s went skiing at Glen Eden.

Grades 1 to 5 have gone skating at the Acton arena at least once already. The Grade 5s have started volleyball and are getting ready for their first game on Feb. 10 against George Kennedy School.

Due to the cold weather students have not been allowed outside for many recesses. The Kindergarten classes will be going to the Safety Village.

Welcome to new French teacher Mlle Ens. She came from George Kennedy to replace Mme Coquard who left for a job as a principal.

'Big Brown Beavers' visit Acton Tanner

On Thursday a group of 16 Third Acton Beavers visited The Tanner offices to see how their community newspaper is produced.

The Beavers, along with "Keo" Eric Pinkerton and leader Rusty and assistants Dalton Pinkerton and Joanne Kentner, saw the newspaper operation, from start to finish.

"I had fun and I like the newspaper and how it works. I like the computers especially," said Beaver Darryle McKinley, 8.

Beaver Matthew Youngblut, 7, was also impressed: "I like The Tanner and the computers. I like how the newspaper is made."

Beavers who visited The Tanner were: Andrew Savage, Jordan Larose, Christopher Elmes, Darryle McKinley, Adam

Leblanc, Wesley Kentner, Jordan Ralph, Ryan Arnold, Kyle Osborn, Thomas Leblanc, Kyle Pinkerton, Neil Moon, Kevin Davis, Matthew Youngblut, Ryan Kruchkowsky and Andy Burnett.

"It was pretty good and I've learned a lot. Now I know where The Acton Tanner office is," said Wesley Kentner.

At the end of their visit the Beavers broke into a rousing rendition of their ever-popular "Beaver Song."
