Yes we do make House Calls!

LEGION NEWS

BY HARRY NORTON

The mother of all winters did not faze all the card players this week. There were three tables of bridge on Wednesday and 10 tables of euchre on Thursday. The winners were Grant Allen, Dot Norton and Pearl Baker for bridge. Bob Eggleton, George Prusniak, Irene Shepherd and Lillian Bonfield won for euchre.

The return of sunshine and seasonable weather on Saturday resulted in a good turnout for the meat draw and also for the Community Service on Sunday. The winners for the meat draw on Saturday were: Peggy Harris, Mary Russell, Rod Leech, Doris Allen, Jenny Trevail, H. Badham, Jean Lumbers, Coline Dunlop, Leighton Peach, Brent Dance, Brent Dunlop, Alison Willmott, Gord James, Beth Hilditch and Floyd Hillier.

There was a good crowd out on Sunday night for the Super Bowl. I guess they would have come regardless of the weather. Buffalo had a good first half but ran out of steam and Dallas won 30-13.
