The weather strikes again!

Last week I phoned Paul to tell him I wouldn't have a column for him, and then told him I was going to two meetings from which I would have something to write about. Well, thanks to the horrid weather both meetings were cancelled and here I sit wondering what I'm going to write about.

The first meeting was about the Acton Seniors' Centre and we were to have Paul and Tom from the Recreation Department to tell us how the use of the FlightLine building was shaping up. That meeting will take place this Thursday.

The other meeting was for the Ontario Senior Games, and all I can say at this time is that they will be held in Sudbury some time in August. This meeting was rescheduled for the end of February. Now, let's hope the weatherman is a lot kinder to us in the next 28 days, and then it's March and spring — we hope.

Still have seats on the bus going to Waterloo for the House Party with Frank Leahy — our next Don Messer. We will be leaving at 11 am and stopping in Breslau for a buffet lunch which will cost you $6.95 — taxes included. This is not included in the $29. Give me a call and join us in what should be a great and entertaining day.

They picture justice as a blind woman with scales held in one hand, and believe me that should please these darn feminists who think they are making things better for women. As far as I'm concerned they are not doing women any favours.

They thought it was great and a real step for justice when that stupid woman was let off for cutting off her husband's manhood — maybe he deserved it but that doesn't acquit her of sexual abuse.

My gosh, a woman dying of cancer was sentenced to 12 years in jail for sexual assault and yet a grandfather was let off because he was too old to go to jail, and he had assaulted his granddaughter! I don't get it, and you sure have to question the minds of people who figure who should and who shouldn't get acquitted. Anybody who sexually assaults a child or anybody of any sex should have the book thrown at them. They're sick, sick, sick!

Congratulations to our Senior bowlers Ross Smart and George Lee, who along with Bantam Bowlers Daniel Newell and Daniel Charland, placed first in the Dairy Queen Tournament in Cambridge. Young Newell had five strikes in a row which ended with a score of 267 in that game. Good luck in Uxbridge at the Provincial Tournament.

As for the ladies' team, I must apologize to young Meagan and Sarah for my poor bowling in Cambridge. Couldn't do anything right and the more disgusted I got with myself, the poorer I bowled. Let's just say it was because I had to get up at 6 am and travel to Cambridge — pretty poor excuse, eh?

ROBERT LITTLE NEWS

BY THOMAS MAHON & BECKY CHAPMAN

Last week the Robert Little R.O.K. group started a fund-raiser that will help R.O.K. group members afford their R.O.K. t-shirts. They are selling personal name certificates which tell you what your name means and where it came from.

The Grades 4 and 5's second ski trip was cut short by two hours due to the cold weather. Some people even got a little frostbite.

If you walk in the school halls you will see a lot of smiling faces because everyone knows that Thursday and Friday are Rae days and we get the days off.

We would like to wish a happy birthday to our music teacher Mrs. Vickery who celebrated her birthday last week.

Kindergarten registration has started and we are looking for more students, so if you think your child is ready for Kindergarten come and register.

THE WRATH OF GRAPES

WITH DON CHERRY

Eddie Shore had innovative training techniques

Rose and the rest of the wives were invited to the arena one night, so Rose and the wives got all dolled up thinking they were going to a party. But instead Eddie held a meeting with them in the dressing room and proceeded to tell them they must stop having sex with their husbands during the play-offs.

Why did we put up with treatment you ask? Because we loved the game and would do anything to play.

A bright fellow figured it out one day. There are 24 teams in the NHL (at last count, I think). He figured it this way: there were six teams in the American league, six teams in the Central league, six teams in the Western league, so in reality, every person playing hockey in those days would have been playing in the NHL instead of toiling in Springfield.

There's more in the continuing saga of Eddie Shore. I'll tell you about our goalie, who Eddie felt was going down too much. Eddie tied a rope around the crossbar of the net and around the goalie's neck. It was a short rope and needless to say the goalie never went down too much again.

The Wrath of Grapes is brought to you each week by the area businesses featured here. Your support of these merchants is appreciated. If you have any comments or questions about an item in this column, you may contact Don at: Wrath of Grapes, The Acton Tanner, P.O. Box 150, Acton, L7J 2M3.
