Come and visit your neighbours!

Only minutes west on Highway 7, Rockwood is a bustling community which boasts many unique boutiques, shops and eateries. Come visit and stroll through the village, look for that perfect gift or buy a treasure at one of the village shops. Then grab a bite in one of the delightful restaurants.

Just outside the village is Rockwood Conservation Area, one of the most beautiful in Southern Ontario. It is a topographical smorgasbord of lake, river, cliffs and woodlands. Harris Lake is a favourite spot for campers, swimmers, cross-country skiers, picnickers and nature lovers.

Rockwood was founded by Quakers in the 1820s and was originally named Brotherstown. The Eramosa River's steady flow provided energy to power early businesses, among them a woollen mill, grist mills, a saw mill, a furniture factory and a whiskey distillery.

An architectural highlight is the Rockwood Academy, presently owned by the Ontario Heritage Foundation. Originally built as a private boys' school by the village founders, the late sculptor Josef Drenters restored the limestone edifice with its small chapel and surrounding walls. He relocated sturdy pioneer cabins and a gazebo to the property and created his sculpture garden along winding pathways under the towering fir trees.

Rockwood is a beautiful, historic village with something for everyone. Take time today to stop and enjoy its simple country charm.
