

Elliot seeks Grit nomination

Walt Elliot, Liberal MPP for Halton North from 1987 to 1990, is again seeking the nomination from the Halton North Provincial Liberals. A meeting is scheduled for April 7 in the Nassagaweya Community Centre on the Guelph Line, and will begin at 8 pm. Liberal Leader Lyn McLeod will be the guest speaker.

A provincial election is expected in the spring of 1995 but could be called as early as the fall of 1994.

According to a prepared release dated March 7, Elliot is "incensed at the amount of intervention in the lives of people by the Rae NDP government. Ballooning deficits and increased taxes in NDP Ontario make it high time for serious restructuring of government at the provincial level."

Help for seniors

ASSIC ALERT

Seniors who receive a supplement to Old Age Security will have received a form, entitled "Application for Renewal of Guaranteed Income Supplement or Spouses Allowance 1993/94." The following information should help you:

Completing this application by March 31. If it is not received in time for processing, your April cheque will be cut back to the basic Old Age Security amount of $385.51. The amount will be readjusted when the application is received and any retro-active payments will be made.

Wait for necessary papers: You must have the stubs from February's cheque from the Canada Pension Plan or other pension, and the bank statement of how much interest you have received. All of this has to be declared, so please wait until you have this information telling you exactly what you received in 1991.

If you have questions, call Income Security at 1-800-265-9480.

If you have further problems our staff here at ASSIC can give you some assistance. You can drop into our office at 19 Willow St. N., or call 853-3310.

Items needed: We have clients in need of a fridge, stove, washing machine and sofa bed. If you have any of these items to donate, please call ASSIC at 853-3310.

GET A LEG UP!

We caught Acton's Steve Smith honing his country dancing skills at Robert Little's Parents Assisting Children and Teachers (PACT) line dancing night on Friday. Smith's wife Barb was teaching the 90-minute session to a packed gym. She also teaches classes Friday nights from 7:30 to 9 at St. Alban's Church. Each week different dances are taught and it's pay as you go. The cost is $3. (Doug Harrison photo)
