Canes in Ontario final

The Halton Major Atom Hurricanes hockey team has made it to the all-Ontario final.

They play the winner of the Whitby-Burlington series.

Leading up to their final match with Streetsville in tournament-style playoff format, the determined Hurricanes convincingly beat each of their four opponents.

They defeated Streetsville 5-3, routed Oakville 7-1, beat

Barrie 5-3 and throttled Chinguacousy 8-1.

In the final 8-1 crushing of Streetsville, the Canes, who finished 23-4-7 in regular season play, found themselves down 1-0 at the end of the opening period.

The Hurricanes, though, potted eight unanswered goals, aided by Acton player Joel Petkoff's two-goal effort. He also added an assist.
