

Sabres bow to Tillsonburg in Zone B-CC final

The Acton Nellis Construction Novice I rep hockey Sabres' outstanding season came to an end last Monday in Tillsonburg as the Sabres lost the fourth game of the Ontario Zone B-CC championship series 2-0 to Tillsonburg.

Tillsonburg were crowned champs in a raised stick arch (common in lacrosse) after defeating the Sabres 3-1 in the best-of-five series.

The series was tightly played as Tillsonburg's victories of 2-1, 2-1 and 2-0 indicate.

The locals' victory on March 19 was the only game in which either team dominated as the Sabres jumped to a 3-0 lead before Tillsonburg replied for two goals late in the game.

Later, the Sabres added another for a 4-2 win.

Goal scorers in the game were John Field, Andrew Pembleton, Sean Kirk and Mark Pawlak.

Assists went to Pawlak, Steve Atkinson, Chris Jowett and Nick Mastro.

The Sabres' excellent season produced a 41-15-7 record. They entered four tournaments during the year — the Acton tourney, were finalists in both the King City and Dunnville tournaments and took bronze in a Bracebridge competition.

The Sabres are: Max Schaeffer, Shawn Prentice, Sean Kirk, David Lyons, Jon Newby, Steve Atkinson, Adam Brouillard, Mark Pawlak, Jason Strong, Nick Mastro, Mike

Robin Inscoc is the Sabres' head coach, while Bob Dube is his assistant. Mike Wolfer is the trainer and the Sabres' manager is Mike Petkoff.

The Sabres would like to thank all the players' parents and grandparents whose help throughout the year made it a special one.

Extra thanks are extended to the Acton Sabres Minor Hockey Association executives for another outstanding season.

More about Danny

Danny Gullivan was with the great Canadian teams since 1952, and called almost 2,000 games with his buddy Dick Irvin. After his death, Milt Dunnell, the writer from the Toronto Star, reported that Red Storey, Danny's best friend said, "This must sound terrible, but it couldn't have happened to a better guy." My buddy Red Fisher said, "That is not a terrible way of putting it, you've got it right."

Danny had just returned from golf in Florida, his resignation as chairman of the Hockey Hall of Fame players selection committee had been tendered and he made sure his nomination for Guy Lapointe for the Hall of Fame had been registered. Then he quietly went to sleep.

That's the kind of guy Danny was. What better way to go.
