Poor offence costs Proplastex

The Acton Proplastex Atom hockey team lost its bid for a Tri-County championship, dropping a 4-1 decision to Grand Valley at the Community Centre last Tuesday.

Jeff Schouten potted Acton's only goal on an unassisted play at the 6:05 mark of the second period.

Acton couldn't find the net, scoring twice in the best-of-three series. Local coach Paul Metcalfe was very proud of his team's success and hard work through the season.

Noted for their strong play in the final game were forwards Thomas Mahon, Jeff Payne and D.J. King and defencemen Darren Banks, Ryan Turpin and Stephen Monaghan.
