

Career Day at Rockwood Centennial

CENTENNIAL NEWS

BY JACKIE HUME & CHRISTA PARKINSON

What would you like to be when you grow up? Be a doctor, a firefighter, a nurse, a teacher? These are just some of the careers that you could pick.

On Friday, April 29, the Grade 7 and Grade 8 students had a career day. They were involved in four different career groups from 1:05 pm until 3:10 pm. The students learned about the different careers and other important things about the choices that they pick. The choices might include: veterinarian, radio announcer, doctor (M.D.), lawyer, firefighter, hockey player, computer engineer, artist, pilot, news reporter, real estate agent, banker, business person, teacher, secretary or nurse.

On Monday, April 25 four or five classes went tree planting. On April 27 a lady from the Guelph Humane Society went to the classrooms in our school with a little dog named "Jake", talking about animals at the Humane Society.

This week is Education Week. Tomorrow (Thursday) is our Music Night, which starts at 7 pm. All are welcome and it only costs $1.50 to attend.
