Music-drama night a hit

CENTENNIAL NEWS
 BY JACKIE HUME & CHRISTA PARKINSON
 On Thursday morning Mr.

Georges and the Rockwood Centennial Badminton Team went to Erin District High School to compete.

Thursday evening we had our popular Music and Drama Night in the gym.

Included in the evening's program there was the Grade 7 and Grade 8 band, Grades 1, 2 and 3 choir, Grades 4, 5, 6 choir and also a Grade 8 choir.

A play called "The Little Old Lady" was also enjoyed by everyone in the auditorium.

On Friday morning the Junior department held an awards assembly. There was also a gymnastic display by the Centennial gymnastics team.

Tutoring program helps with reading, writing

At Rockwood Centennial School, eight very diligent Grade 8 students have been serving as reading and writing tutors during this past year. They have provided one-on-one tutoring to teacher-selected Grade 5 students in a pilot project for the school.

All reports of the program have been very positive. The tutors received a month's intensive training from Mr. Root, their Grade 8 language arts teacher, in the area of instructing reading and writing skills, as well as learning some effective disciplinary techniques.

These students give up some of their own instructional time to work with their learning partners every second day. It is further expected that the tutors not get behind in the concepts taught in the regular program while they are out with their partners.

These dedicated young people go beyond what is expected of the typical Grade 8 student. The tutors also completed reports for their learning partner, sent with report cards in first term. Right now, the tutors are working with partners to give the rest of the Grade 5s an example of a good presentation of an oral book report.

The staff and students at Rockwood Centennial are very appreciative of all who have been involved with the program.

FLYING UP!
