M & M Sports takes 2 from HH Electric at Midget Game Day

The Halton Hills Rural League Midgets held its hardball Game Day recently at McKenzie-Smith as the M & M Sports squad downed the Halton Hills Electric club twice.

In Game 1, Shawn Hopkins knocked in a pair of runs, while Dave Dolliver and Dave Clark added one each in a 12-6 loss.

M & M Sports was backed by excellent defence and strong pitching.

Darryl Brake made a nice running catch in centre field for the second out of the sixth inning, while Hopkins and Jason Lowrie combined for seven strikeouts over seven innings.

M & M's second game against Kilbride was rained out.

Clark and Lowrie, with a pair each, led the RBI parade in Game 3 in a return match against Halton Hills Electric.

Single RBIs went to Brake, Hopkins. Another run was scored on a bases-loaded walk en route to a 7-5 M & M win.

Again, M & M displayed some dazzling defence as second baseman Lowrie combined with SS Jason Davis and Hopkins at first.

The pitching corps of Hopkins, Lowrie and Jason Pembleton fanned eight batters in three innings.

NOTES: On Sunday, Lowrie, Pembleton and Hopkins combined to hold the visiting Waterdown Midgets to one run in an 8-1 victory at McKenzie-Smith.

In the second inning, Pembleton brought home Sterling Luedee, who had doubled.

Walks to Lister, Brake, Corey Harding and Jason Davis cashed in another run before Hopkins — who had three RBIs — tripled home Dolliver and Luedee, who both reached base on safeties.

Hopkins had three RBIs on the night.

Waterdown scored their lone run of the game in the sixth.

Rockwood No-Stars keep shining; grab 4th win

The Rockwood No-Stars Ladies' baseball team continues to soar after recording win No. 4, a 30-7 shellacking of Copetown at Lloyd Dyer Park last Wednesday.

Despite the chilly conditions, the No-Star bats were red-hot as the locals racked up three, six-run innings.

Bev Armstrong led the attack with a home run, while Marilyn McKinney and Laurie Leighton pounded out triples.

Holly Colquhoun headed a sound defence with some great stabs in centre field with Brenda Farlow taking charge on the basepaths with aggressive base-running.

Leighton and Lori Savage combined to cool the Copetown batters.

"The ladies are off to a good start this year," comments coach Dot Polo.

"The new players are fitting in well with the team and we are really beginning to gel," adds manager Bonnie Hamilton.

The No-Stars are on the road tonight (Wednesday), but return to Lloyd Dyer Park June 15 at 8:30 pm.
