THE WRATH OF GRAPES

WITH DON CHERRY

Do-gooders ruining hockey!

I remember when I coached in Colorado and we had a player named Bobby Sheehan. We sent him to Fort Worth to play in an exhibition game against Denver College. When he came back to Denver he said to me "Grapes, I've played in every league that exists, but I've never seen such stick work in my whole life."

Between the full face mask (that's another story) and not allowing fighting, the sticks will fly, but the do-gooders just don't get it. The reason is they've never played the game.

Our rules are being made by people who haven't even been near ice, except for the stuff that floats in their cocktails. Truth is, they wouldn't know a hockey player if they slept with Bobby Orr.

The Wrath of Grapes is brought to you each week by the area businesses featured here. Your support of these merchants is appreciated. If you have any comments or questions about an item in this column, you may contact Don at: Wrath of Grapes, The Acton Tanner, P.O. Box 150, Acton, L7J 2M3.
