THE WRATH OF GRAPES

WITH DON CHERRY

The Mark of Zorro!

That's what I'm calling the playoffs this year — the Mark of Zorro! It is really unbelievable the number of cuts from sticks the players are giving and receiving.

There's no respect for the stick whatsoever (have you noticed when a player appears on TV the nicks and cuts?). I remember in one game (Toronto and Vancouver) Gartner, Gill, Manderville and Macoun were all cut.

I remember back in the 70s you would go through the whole series and maybe two guys would be cut. Now, two guys a game are getting cut.

Although the Bruins were the toughest team in sports (we were so tough that Dave "The Hammer" Schultz said in his book that he "The Hammer" couldn't sleep the night before a game in the Boston Gardens, because he knew what was waiting for him).

My point is, that although we were tough, we did cut guys with fists maybe, but we didn't use the sticks.
