Tyke Rams pound Fergus 7-1; win season series 2-1

RAMS LACROSSE

The Acton Rams lacrosse squads had a tough week as only the North Halton Material Handling Tykes managed a win in league action.

The Tykes travelled to Fergus to play the last of three regular season matchups. Before the game both teams had gained a victory.

Acton, though, took control from the outset in the final meeting and came home with a 7-1 win, thanks to a three-goal outing from Matt Lyons.

Single markers went to Chad Artem, Nick Newby, Matt Bronizewski and Andrew Friolet.

Scott Williams with a pair, Newby, Bronizewski, Brady Masters, Steve Terry and Kyle Osborne drew assists.

With the win, the Tykes improved their record to 5-3-1.

The 5-4 McIntyre Fuels-Crowe Construction Novice Rams ran into a much-improved Owen Sound team that was looking for revenge after an 11-3 beating at the hands of Acton in their last meeting.

Adam Lindsay potted two goals for the locals, but it wasn't enough as Owen Sound prevailed 7-4.

Mike Dube added a goal and assist. Steve Atkinson also scored.

Registering other helpers were Justin Cole, David Lyons and Matt Wolfer.

The MacKenzie-Chapman-

Galvcast Bants had trouble overcoming a week-and-a-half layoff and fell 9-2 to Owen Sound.

Richard Raju notched Acton's two goals with assists awarded to Kyle Artem with two, Shawn Weatherall and Jason Christopher.

NOTES: The Bants played in a tourney in Napanee last weekend and lost the "A" championship to Nepean.

Acton crushed Gloucester 12-1 and toppled Six Nations 10-1 in the opening rounds.

Goal-scoring details were not available at press time.

Al and Al's collapses in the 5th

Limehouse broke open a 4-3 Al and Al's Red Brand Meats lead in the fifth inning of a Bantam baseball contest on Thursday in Limehouse with four runs to down the locals.

Acton scored first as Derek Lockerbie singled to score Gavin Hall, who had singled.

Al Reynolds added another run before Limehouse evened the game in their at-bat.

A scoreless third inning was followed by runs to Hall and Keith Moreland in the fourth. They were cashed in by Reynolds and Lockerbie hits.

Down 4-3, Limehouse's Ryan Valente, Glen Kilmer, Peter Lemiski and Scott Ellis scored to salt the game away.

Nellis cruises to win No. 6

Nellis Construction reeled off its sixth straight win on Thursday at Prospect Park as Ryan Winters, Kyle Winters and Michael Crook combined to hold Kilbride to a single run in a 19-1 shellacking in Tyke baseball play.

Kyle Winters helped his own cause at the plate, belting a grand slam. Ryan Spillar and Darryl McKnight also helped in the offensive department.

Lerah Scott and Sherry Moriarty shone in the field.

Recently, Nellis pounded Halton Power Line 15-3 at St. Joseph's Separate School.

Numerous walks, coupled with the offensive showcase from Crook, Kyle Winters and Nick Ridler, led to the high score.

Despite all the runs, Jay Lalonde looked sharp on the hill for Halton Power Line.
