

Smeltzer's 3-goal effort paces Rockwood's Campbell Soup

MINOR SOCCER NEWS

UNDER-15

On the strength of Brian McIntyre's four goals, Aland Al's Red Brand Meats Under-15 Boys' soccer team trounced Hillsburgh 8-1 last Monday at Erin high school.

Bobby McDougal, Daryn McIntyre, Corey Brock and Derrick McIntyre tallied singles.

Contributing assists were Derrick McIntyre, Daryn McIntyre and Adam Youngblut.

In other Under-15, five county action, Jon Routledge's two goals lifted Andy's Restaurant past host Woolwich 5-4 last Tuesday.

Ben Muggridge, Andre Savard and Derrick McIntyre also scored.

Other noteworthy Andy's players were Brady Straw, Kyle Straw and Bob McDougal.

Jon Routledge scored three times in Tuitman's Garden Centre and Landscaping's 18-0 humbling of Rockwood at Acton High last Monday.

Registering two-goal outings were Kris Adema, Brady Straw, Ben Muggridge, Kyle Straw and Brent McGuire.

Singles went to Sean Hillier, Peter Sitarz, Matt West, Jon Goralewski and Andre Savard.

UNDER-13

The Acton Under-13 (Dave's Home Service) Girls' soccer outfit saw action twice last week, earning a win and a tie.

On Thursday, a solid effort helped in a 6-1 victory over Fergus.

Caitlin Knowles scored twice. Jaime Campbell, Mary Krasney, Theresa Clayton and Jennifer McNaughton potted one each.

Local keeper Laura Wood was denied her bid for a shutout when Fergus fired the ball past her in the last minute of the contest.

Acton dominated play last Tuesday against Milton III, but had to settle for a 2-2 draw.

Krasney opened the Acton scoring. The locals' second goal was deflected off a Milton player when Acton was pressing around their opponents net.

Their defence then surrendered two goals in the final five minutes.

In the other game, D.J. King and Joel Petkoff each scored four goals to power Acton Cleaners over Fergus 12-1 at M.Z. Bennett on Thursday.

Danny Goralewski with three and Jeff Payne also scored.

UNDER-11

It was hot but Achilles Motors was hotter.

The site was Ballinafad on Thursday and the on-field combatants were the Girls Under-11 locals against Hillsburgh.

Achilles' Meighan McIntyre opened the scoring early in the game and promptly added four more before the first half ended.

She later added her sixth of the game in the second half before letting teammate Shannon Gray fire two goals to end the onslaught.

Defensively, Kate Hendy and Beckie Taylor came up big to hold Hillsburgh to a single marker.

Collecting assists for Achilles were Holly Goddard with three, Gray (2) and Meagan Brown one.

Good efforts were also turned in by keeper Zoe Glass, Taylor, Jennifer Reeve and Erin Walsh.

In Boys' action, two goals by Matt Abrams and Mike Chapman helped Rockwood's Midland Walwyn tie Acton Pharmacy 4-4 last Wednesday.

Steve Barens with three and Danny Pursoo replied for Acton.

Mathew Gardener was stellar in the Acton net.

UNDER-9

MacMillan's received a three-goal performance from Travis Medland last Tuesday in Grand Valley in their 3-2 victory.

Awarded assists were David Ellis with two and Joe Douglas.

Blake Martin was brilliant in net and the Sharples brothers played hard.

Acton Travel nipped Herrington Printing 4-3 last Tuesday.

Kiel Scola led Acton Travel with two goals. Also scoring were Jonathon Tysoe and Jacek Wiktor.

Jeremy Chambers with two paced the Herrington's attack. D'Arcy O'Driscoll added one.

UNDER-7

Brock Smeltzer's three goals were more than enough to lead Rockwood's Campbell Soup past Blue Springs Flower Shop 4-0 in Under-7 play at Rockmosa Park last Monday.

Fraser Anderson also scored.

Rockwood stars were Matthew Clark, Taylor Callahan and D'Arcy Gordon.

Noteworthy players for Acton were Patrick Eagan, Jeff Hirlehey and Gabor Jakab.

Rockwood (Guelph OPP) shaded Denny's Insurance 1-0 at Rockmosa Park last Monday in the other game.

Rockwood had numerous shots on goal, but Acton keeper Eric Worfolk was terrific in thwarting all but one comer.

Marissa Kidd, Kyle Wrigglesworth, Julia Niblock and Jordan Kuenzig also stood out for Acton.

Midgets fan 8 in 4-0 win

Masterful pitching helped the M & M Pro Sports Midget baseball team manhandle Kilbride 4-0 at McKenzie-Smith last Wednesday.

Jason Lowrie started and recorded the win after throwing three innings and striking out two. Shawn Hopkins hurled two innings, fanning three, while Jason Pembleton finished up with two innings of two-strikeout ball.

Offensively, Darryl Brake led with a single and triple. Dave Dolliver had a single and double.

Pembleton and Corey Harding added two safeties, while Peter Lister and Jason Davis added one.

Holmes tops rookie club

Led by Tyler Holmes' two hits and a strong supporting cast, the Legion Branch 197 rookie baseball squad outlasted Carlisle 12-5 at Robert Little last Wednesday.

Fielding eight players, Robbie Rolf and Ray Peterson did a good job patrolling the field.

Sean Canary recorded the win. Troy Ethier picked up the save.
