Swimmers 22nd at Long Course final

Six of Acton's top swimmers competed at the Central Ontario Long Course championships held recently at the Etobicoke Olympium. There were 891 swimmers representing 30 clubs. Acton scored twice as many points at the Long Course final than they had in any previous meet, since the inception of the team. "When you train hard, have a positive attitude and give it your best, it will show in your result," said Aqua Duck coach Gerry Ockenden. Jaime MacDonald set five personal best times on the day, finishing in the top 25 per cent of the 11 and 12-year-old Girls class. Mike Lenizky and Alexandra Bull also set personal marks. The 14-year-old Lenizky placed sixth in the 50m consolation race for 13 and 14-year-old boys, while Bull, 12, parlayed her three personal best times into a seventh-place effort in the 50m Breaststroke for 11 and 12-year-old girls. In the 13 and 14-year-old Girls' events, Julie Plotas, 14, grabbed a silver medal in the 50-metre Breaststroke final. She added a first in the 200m Breaststroke consolation race and a third in the 100m Breaststroke consolation. Gareth Lichty, 14, captured first in the 200m Individual Medley and placed third in the final of the 100m Backstroke. He also sat fifth in the 50m Freestyle final and sixth in the 100m Breaststroke event. In the 15-and-over Girls' bracket, Kara MacDonald had her best showing in the 200m Backstroke, a fifth in the final. She placed sixth in the 100m Backstroke, sixth in the 50m Freestyle and eighth in the 50m Backstroke.
