FESTIVAL TIME!

Something for everyone at Festival

Everyone's invited to Acton's third annual Leathertown Festival, on Sunday, Aug. 7 at the olde Hide House parking lot. Events run from 11 am to 5 pm.

Acton's leather-working heritage is the theme for this one-day event. Many leather artisans will be showing and selling their wares.

Tour the town on the double-decker bus, which runs from 12 noon to 4. Shop at the craft show, juried to provide only quality handmade crafts.

Visit the children's activity tent for face painting, crafts and games. Enjoy the entertainment throughout the day as different dance and musical groups perform on the outdoor stage.

And local service clubs will be dishing out fabulous food all day long.

There is no admission charge, so bring your family and all your friends to Canada's Leathertown for the fun-time festival of the year!

ON-STAGE at the FESTIVAL!
