

Ahearn, Chapman combine for 9 K's

Andy's Restaurant Peewee hardball pitchers Adam Ahearn and Sandy Chapman mowed down nine Kibride batsmen in four innings last week and received stellar defence from Wayne Hopkins in another game for a winning week.

The locals held a 7-0 lead heading to the fourth inning at Prospect Park last Wednesday when Waterdown touched Chris Scully for a pair of runs.

Scully was aided when he combined with first baseman Matt Bodin combined for an out, along with a picturesque double play turned by Phil Scott in the second frame.

THE WRATH OF GRAPES

WITH DON CHERRY

'A city gone nuts'

Toronto's not like the old days - safe, clean and friendly. Things have sure changed and not for the better.

I remember when they use to have the Orange Parade with King Billy on his white horse. The crowd was orderly, having clean fun, cheering and clapping. Now there's parades with guys kissing guys and other parades where people are stalking one another; there's drug fights with police and you name it. Toronto's a city gone nuts! If you don't believe me, walk down Yonge Street at about 1 in the morning.

Your insurance better be paid up before you make your journey to the city streets. The streets have gone wild and everyone is out for themselves.

It's a shame; all the courteous folks who use to walk Toronto streets are holed up in their homes with the security chain on, afraid to even go out in their own yard!
