

McIntyre Bros. destroy Rockwood Optimists

MINOR SOCCER NEWS

UNDER-15

Last Monday's soccer match at M.Z. Bennett between Al and Al's Red Brand Meats and Rockwood Optimists should have been dubbed McIntyre Night.

Brothers Daryn, Derrick and Phil combined for all eight Al and Al's goals in the locals 8-1 victory.

Daryn counted five, Derrick two and one from Phil.

In other action, Tuitman's Garden and Landscaping fielded only eight players to Hillsburgh's 11, but came out 4-3 winners, thanks to Jon Routledge's two-goal performance last Monday at Erin high school.

Ben Muggridge and Peter Sitarz had the other Tuitman's goals.

Blair Snell, Phil Atkins and Darren Frankland replied for the hosts in the game called early due to inclement weather.

Kris Adema, Jon Routledge and Ben Muggridge all scored as Andy's Restaurant came back from a 4-0 deficit and were narrowly defeated 4-3 by Fergus at Acton High last Tuesday.

The McIntyre brothers, Derrick, Daryn and Phil stood out in a losing cause.

UNDER-13

In Under-13 action, Acton Cleaners was again triumphant, defeating Hillsburgh on Thursday by an 18-1 count in what was an outstanding team performance.

Joel Petkoff led the attack for an unstoppable local squad, scoring seven times. Danny Goralewski and Jason Mota potted four apiece. D.J. King rounded out the scoring with a hat-trick.

Not only did he excel in the Acton net, but David Hatch contributed an assist on one of King's goals.

UNDER-11

The Achilles Motors Girls' soccer outfit dumped Milton II 7-1

on Thursday at McKenzie-Smith.

Local player Lisa Wood scored early and then set up Holly Goddard to make it 2-0. It was soon 4-0 after Meighan McIntyre scored and then fed Goddard for her second of the contest.

McIntyre popped home her second of the game early in the second half. Other goals were scored by Shannon Gray and Nicole Findlay.

Keeper Sabrina Fread was solid and was helped by a defence corps of Kate Taylor, Becky Taylor and Zoe Glass.

In recent play, Achilles was shut out 3-0 by Milton I.

Fread, Henry, Gray and McIntyre played well, but had trouble penetrating the Milton net for any legitimate scoring chances.

UNDER-7

Kyle Bodi scored for Blue Springs Flower Shop in a 2-1 loss to Holland Shop at M.Z. Bennett.

Mandy Christopher, Desiree Durant and Samantha Crichton also shone on the field.

Rain delays Foodland's 3-game win streak

The only thing that can stop the Acton Foodland Peewee baseball team lately is poor weather.

The locals entered Thursday's game against Waterdown IV riding a three-game winning streak. However, the game was halted due to rain after the first inning and Foodland's record remained at 10-4.

Meanwhile, in recent action, Acton clipped Kilbride Red 8-6.

The game was tied 3-3 after the first inning. Andrew Coe struck out the side in the first and second.

Jeff Miller and Mark Smith scored a pair of runs each.

An under-staffed local squad put it at Kilbride Blue 23-2.

Crossing the plate were David Albano with four runs, Smith with four, three to Coe, Matt Hall and Lucas Vandermeer and a single to Peter Topolay.

Powered by a two-run homer from David Lajeunesse, Foodland dumped Waterdown III 12-5.

Pitchers Coe and Albano prevented the home team from scoring more than one run in any inning. Hall was strong in the field.
