Midgets win Streetsville tourney

Acton's M & M Pro Sport-Halton Hills Electric Midget Select hardball team beat the odds and showed true winning form by capturing the recent three-day Streetsville tournament.

The final, won 4-3 by the locals, proved to be a real nailbiter for the Acton faithful.

Acton was forced to claw their way back from a 3-0 deficit against the Guelph Selects.

Down 3-2 in the sixth inning, Acton tied the contest in the seventh and then moved into the lead.

Then the mound trio of Shawn Hopkins, Lou Mastro and Jason Pembleton went to work and shut down their opponents. In fact, the threesome have in their last three outings, allowing only eight runs.

Fielders Peter Lister, Lucas Zinke and Dave Dolliver were outstanding in making running catches, laying down bunts and stealing bases at critical times.

Dave Clark played solid at his third base post and was responsible for driving in the tying run.

Second baseman Darryl Brake was superb in the field and his typical aggressive self on the bases.

Cory Harding, though, played the smartest game of the tourney in the final catching the entire game. And Steve White was brilliant at short as his winning of the Most Valuable Player award showed.

Acton coach Bill Clark, although happy with overall performance from his boys, couldn't resist marvelling over Pembleton, who mashed a 315-foot homer earlier in the tourney against Niagara Falls.

"The boys won because they played as a team," Clark notes. He adds a special thanks to Rob Pembleton and Tony Mastro for their assistance in coaching.

The locals, though, began the tourney on a sour note as they were routed 13-2 by the hosts. Unfazed, they rebounded the next day and took both their games, doubling Pickering 6-3 and thrashing Niagara Falls 12-2.

HH Furniture ties Acton 'A'

Terrific hitting by Tara Lynne Kirk and Teri McCaslin allowed the Halton Hills Furniture and Appliances Girls' Squirt softball team to tie Acton "A" 17-17 at Prospect Park last Tuesday.

Great all-round play was shown by Laurel Adams, Toby Slack and Jaime Crabtree.

U-13 Selects 13-0; eye perfect season

The Leathertown Pet and Feed Supply Under-13 Select soccer club dominated league play last week, trouncing Woolwich 9-1 last Tuesday and pounding Hillsburgh 10-1 last Wednesday.

Acton's record sits at 13-0, setting up a shot for a perfect season in their last league game, slated for tonight (Wednesday) against Hillsburgh at the Elizabeth Drive field.

In Erin last Wednesday, Acton started slowly in the end-to-end match.

It was 3-2 Acton just past the halfway mark of the first half and then the game broke open.

Jason Mota carried the hot foot, starting and finishing matters with a four-goal performance.

Scott Nairn added a hat-trick, while Ben Williams, David King and Ryan Bowen scored one each.

Assists went to King, Derrick Inscoe and Danny Goralewski with three, Nairn, Williams, David Hatch, Jakub Wiktor, Kevin Dreschel and Andrew Martin.

Regular keeper Dreschel didn't look out of place in the midfield. Either did David Hatch, who replaced Dreschel between the posts. Josh Bowen was summoned from the Under-11 team and played well.

Against Woolwich, Mota opened the scoring on a feed from Ryan Bowen.

King upped the lead to 2-0, converting a three-way passing play with Goralewski and Inscoe.

Superb passing allowed Inscoe, who later added his second, to make it 3-0. Mota and Ben Williams drew the assists.

The onslaught continued as Mota ended the game with a pair of goals and assists, as did Wiktor.

King also scored twice, while Ryan Bowen counted a goal and two helpers. Williams rounded out the scoring.

Other assists went to Goralewski with two and Williams.

The game featured one of the prettiest goals of the season when Goralewski passed the ball to Mota, who crossed a high pass over to King for the header goal.

Wiktor deserved special mention as he was stellar in playing both the fullback and forward positions.

Rookie hardballers in final

A contagious bug seemed to be passing from one Acton Legion rookie hardball player to another last week, but no one seemed to be complaining.

And why would they when it was hot hitting that seemed to be hovering over the locals' bench against Limehouse in their best-of-three semi-final series.

Matthew Shibley led the attack with two homers, including a grand slam, as the Legion — which topped the regular season standings with a 13-3 record — ousted Limehouse last Tuesday and Wednesday with convincing 10-1 and 19-5 victories.

Other hits were recorded by Joe Brunelle, Tyler Holmes, Shawn Richard, Peter Finnie, Troy Ethier, Daniel Snow and Ray Peterson.

Robbie Rolfe, who had yet to record a hit this season, broke out with a single and double.

Finals began Monday night at Prospect Park.
