

MacMillan's takes U-9 Boys' Cup

After a 1-1 tie against Grand Valley's H & R Block to open the Under-9 round-robin soccer series as part of Cup weekend, MacMillan's went the extra step in the final on Sunday, knocking off Grand Valley 2-1.

Blake Martin took a long pass off the foot of netminder Reid Hendry to score his second goal of the game with only four seconds remaining in regulation to cap a thrilling championship contest.

MacMillan's reached the final following a 5-1 victory over Herrington Printing earlier on Sunday.

Tyler Veness put on a goal-scoring clinic with his four-goal performance. Joe Douglas rounded out the scoring.

On Saturday, Martin scored as MacMillan's edged Rockwood Optimists 1-0 to put them atop their division.

Earlier in the day, MacMillan's and Acton Travel played to a scoreless draw.

Meanwhile, Martin found the net to open the playoffs last Tuesday against Grand Valley.

Acton Vet Clinic wins U-11 Cup over Rockwood

After a second place finish in league play, the Acton Veterinary Clinic boys stepped up their play a notch, placing first in Acton Minor Soccer Cup action.

On Sunday, Acton advanced to the semi-final where they tangled with Grand Valley, who fell 2-0 to the locals the previous day.

A strong comeback by the Vets in the second half put Acton ahead by five goals and helped them earn a berth in the final against the Rockwood Optimists.

An outstanding effort was put forth by every player on the Vet squad with special mention to the four defenders who kept Rockwood as far from the net as possible en route to a 2-1 squeaker over the previously unbeaten Optimists.

The final played much like the first battle between these two teams on Saturday: a hard-fought defensive match and a one-goal margin, won 3-2 by Rockwood.

Acton Vet Clinic beat Rockwood's Midland Walwyn 5-0 and tied Acton Pharmacy 2-2 in other playoff games.

The Acton Vet team is comprised of Nathan Williamson, Jamie Stevenson, Shawn Prentice, Kyle Larose, J.D. Hatch, Jesse Dunn, Mark Chumley, Mike Van den Hoek, Bobby Pereira, Shawn Gobin, Andrew Draper, Chris Dennie, Neal Dawkins, Greg Corman, Brendon Dick and Matthew Davis.

Coaches Shelagh Bailey and Natalie Cameron would like to thank all the boys for a great season, along with their parents for their help and support throughout the '94 campaign.

Acton Cleaners take U-13 title

Acton Cleaners was crowned the 1994 Under-13 Boys' minor soccer Cup champs on Sunday as they clipped Grand Valley 1-0.

Andrew Martin, who was set up by Joel Petkoff, banged home the game's only goal.

Danny Goralewski and David Hatch preserved the win with solid work between the posts.

Acton advanced to the championship after doubling Rockwood II 4-2 on Sunday in the semi-final.

Jeff Payne led the Acton attack with four goals on Saturday, when the locals squashed Fergus 13-0.

Potting a pair were Petkoff, Jakub Wiktor and Andrew Martin. Singles went to Goralewski, Sisnett and Mota.

Acton beat Rockwood I 6-3 to open the tourney on Saturday.

Comprising the Acton Cleaners team are Kendall Brown, Mark Cripps, Rory Dick, Jamie Dunn, Ben Elliott, Danny Goralewski, David Hatch, D.J. King, Andrew Martin, Jason Mota, Ken Neary, Jeff Payne, Joel Petkoff, Ryan Samson, Cameron Sisnett, Matthew Virgin, Jakub Wiktor and coach Chris Graham.
