League action underway

From page 19 forward to having her back. See you all at bowling trying for that perfect game.

Last Tuesday, the ladies had their bowling arms in shape and were hot with 11 out of 89 games bowled in the 200 range.

Lucy Synnott in Game 3, bowled a high 243; Kim Young, 637; Connie Bath, 590; Mamie Clarke, 581; Cathy Vandenhoeck, 577. Top averages: Lucy Synnott, 197; Kim Young, 196; Mamie Clarke, 194; Connie Bath, 190; Sue Walton, 186.

Congratulations to Lucy for three games bowled in the 200s (201, 230, 243).

Team standings for this week are: The Knotty Gang, The Moody Tuesdays and 222's winning all three of their games and all tied with seven points apiece followed by The Clippers, Rollos and The Fab Five with no points. Watch these standings change next week.

We welcomed another new bowler this week, Fran Pierce, who in her second game bowled a 215. Fran tells us that she hasn't bowled for a number of years and bowled a triple flat of 511 was just beginner's luck. Watch out ladies, I think that Fran is going to be one lucky bowler.

Tuesday Ladies bowling gossip — Pat Peterson has taken the plunge and is hitting the books, attending Adult Education classes at Acton High to learn computers, business communications and more. We all expect A's Pat! ... Teresa tried her bowling arms, bowling with both left and right hands this week. She didn't bowl her usual 200s but will again soon be in top form. Get well wishes to Anna's husband.

High-Low Doubles Tournament starts October 31 — December 4.
