

Still room for dart players at Legion

LEGION NEWS

BY JOYCE BUCHANAN
Branch 197 P.R.O.

Wednesday's bridge game had three tables, the winners being Colin Baker, Yvonne Hamilton and Mary Irwin.

Thursday's euchre had 15 tables, with the following winners: first, Jim McKnight; second, Jean McPhail; third, Neil Frawley; fourth, Warren Schenk; hidden score was Bruce Smith.

Anyone interested in playing bridge or euchre should be at the Branch around 1 pm on Wednesday and Thursday respectively. There is always room for more players.

The meat draw winners this week were: Early Bird winners Lloyd Neville and Shawn Parmiter; regular winners Angie Mowat, Ed Molody, Brent Dance, George O'Donnell, Al Robinson, Alison Willmott, Gail Herdman, Mary Irwin, Allen Gordon, Shorty Lowin, Lloyd Neville, and Mary Watson. Large prize winner was Allen Gordon.

Ladies Auxiliary, please note the next meeting is this Thursday at 8 pm.

Sports schedules for the '94-'95 season are now posted on the bulletin board. They cover bowling, crib, euchre, curling, bridge, horseshoes, shuffle board, darts and 10-pin bowling. Stop in at the Branch and check it out.

The dart league started last Tuesday, but you can still join. Crib will start Oct. 13, so you still have time to contact Dobbie (853-2021).

Keep an eye on the bulletin board for the Halloween event. You won't want to miss it.

All you have to do to be an Early Bird is to pay your dues now!

See you at the Branch.

HAPPY 50TH! Friends and family gathered at Rockwood's Rockmosa hall on Sunday to wish Flo and Stan Bowen a happy 50th anniversary. Here the longtime Acton couple is backed up by children, from left, Wayne, Paul, Wendy (Nellis), Ralph and Mark. Son Ralph travelled all the way from New Jersey, where he is a professional musician.
