

Peewee Canes record 2 wins to start season

The Halton Hurricane Peewee hockey club completed its first week of regular season play last week and posted two wins.

On Saturday, they travelled to Grimsby to meet St. Catharines. Confusing? Yes, and so was their play in the first period, which ended 4-0 St. Kitts.

Early in the second period, Halton hit the board as Acton's Joel Petkoff was fed the puck at the point. He faked a slapshot and then slid a pass to an open teammate who made no mistake. Petkoff later assisted on the Canes' fourth goal to even the game and then the game-winner in the 5-4 verdict.

In Brampton last Wednesday, the Hurricanes man-handled the Maroons 5-0. Petkoff scored one of the locals' goals.

Meanwhile, prior to the season, the Canes competed in the Lambton Lightning's early-bird tourney in Sarnia. They came home champions, winning four of five games.

The Canes' next action is this weekend in Hamilton, where they will compete in the Tim Hortons annual tournament.

65,3,000-metre Midget Girls' runners last Wednesday at an invitational race at Kelso Conservation Area in Milton.

Nor did he care after being pleasantly surprised with Mashinter's first high school run.

"She ran very well. I don't know if I had an influence on her performance or whether she just knew it and relied on her athletic background (skating) to pull through," said Andrews.

Grade 9 runner Chrissy Seehaver wasn't far behind Mashinter, hitting the wire in 29th.

"She did well," offered Andrews. "I think there's a lot more there and that she can run better. She wasn't there (in the race) in the first or second half, but she has the ability to move up 10 to 15 places if she stays near the front longer.

"I think she has the capability to run where Debbie is."

ACTON BOWL RESULTS

The Tuesday Night Ladies sure had a strange night bowling last Tuesday with some erratic scores turned in.

Teresa Uiterwyk seems ready after rolling a 267 in her third game; Carol Jordan did herself proud with a 215 in her first game and 224 in her third game; Pat Peterson — second game 209; and Irene Breen with a 205 in her first game. Good bowling ladies.

High triple flat scores were Carol Jordan with a 606; Teresa Uiterwyk with 595; Pat Peterson — 557; Irene Breen — 531.

Team standings reversed themselves this week with teams trading losses for wins and vice-versa with the exception of the 222s, who again won all three games.

The 222s are now in first position with six wins and 14 points; the Knotty Gang, the Moody Tuesdays, the Clippers and

WITH DON CHERRY

Discipline is funny!

Forget the lockout — until the NHL comes back, my weekly Tanner columns will be dedicated to the young boys and girls now kicking off their minor hockey seasons, and not even thinking about money; they just want as much ice time as they can get.

Discipline is a funny word. The time: May 21, 1994. The place: Vancouver, B.C. The game: Game 3 between the Canucks and Leafs in last season's playoffs. The situation: Toronto had just lost 4-0 and Tim Hunter ran and cheap-shot Dougie Gilmour with three minutes left, causing Rob Pearson to come over and grab Hunter, challenging him to drop the gloves. In other words, if you want to pick on someone, pick on me, someone your own size.

Hunter refused. In fact, he never took off his gloves, and just covered up. Later Hunter said he "used discipline and did it for the team." This is the new creed now, but smaller stars, when challenged, corner up or turtle and say "We're showing discipline and doing it for the team and the fans."

And sportswriters actually buy this disdainful act. I'll have lots more to say about this stuff next week!
