PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

MATT WOLFER

Acton Proplastex Atom 2 Sabres forward Matty Wolfer has been named one of two Players of the Week after posting four goals and an assist in victories over Fergus and Milton last week. Matty attends St. Joseph's Separate School and lists Doug Gilmour as his favourite player.

GREG BARENS

Greg is a member of the URW Local 603 Peewee 2 Sabres. He earned Player of the Week honours after gaining eight points — six goals, two assists — in two games last week. The Grade 7 McKenzie-Smith student is also a member of his school's volleyball team, the Mustangs.

MIDGET

The offensive machine of the Acton Precision Millwrights Midgets continues to churn out goals in high numbers early in the 1994-95 season.

The latest additions were a five-spot in a 5-5 draw with Fergus and an 8-3 decision over Chinguacousy early last week.

The locals fell behind 3-1 after the opening period in Fergus last Tuesday, but saved their best for last, outscoring the home team 4-2 in the final frame to salvage the tie.

Matt Boycott got the Midgets on the board, assisted by Beppy Toscan and Chris Williams. Toscan later added a third-period marker.

Other goal-scorers were Steve

Forbes, Dwayne Rhynold and Josh Marcoux, unassisted.

Marcoux, Williams, Toscan, Boycott, Jason Pembleton, Trevor Malloy and Dave Newell contributed other helpers.

Last Monday, Acton jumped out to a 4-0 lead and received two-goal games from Newell, Boycott and Williams each scored twice in Acton's 8-3 white-wash at the Community Centre against Chinguacousy.

Rounding out the scoring were Malloy and Wilf Couling.

Setting up goals were Rhynold and Adam Daponte twice, Malloy, Toscan, Marcoux, Williams, Boycott, Geoff Heinz, Scott McIntyre and Aaron Hornick.

Meanwhile, Acton shaded Brampton 1-0 on Thursday in an exhibiton match. Boycott scored, assisted by Toscan and Newell.

PEEWEE 1

Jason Christopher, with help from Shawn Weatherall and Marcel Dube, scored the decisive goal at 6:24 of the second period to lift the Acton Galvcast Peewee 1 Sabres past Milton 2-1 at Thompson Arena on Saturday.

Kyle Artem, who opened the Sabres scoring 4:35 into the game, was set up by Mark Forbes.

With the win, Galvcast's record is 4-0, having outscored their opponents 23-9 in the process.

It was a rough game that resulted in ejections to Galvcast coaches Bob Dube and Kevin Weatherall, along with players Weatherall and Dube.

Galvcast goalie Craig Foster had his bid for a shutout spoiled early in the third period, but he held them off the board thereafter to preserve the victory.

Acton beat Elora 6-1 last Wednesday. Scoring information wasn't available at press time.

PEEWEE 2

On the heels of a 10-0 throttling of Arthur on the road Thursday, the URW Local 603 Sabres dropped a slim 5-3 decision at the Community Centre to Erin on Saturday.

Scoring were Adam Bosch, Joey Field and Greg Barens.

Collecting assists were Barens and Rueben Rivers.

Meanwhile, a solid team effort on Thursday resulted in enough goals for two or three games.

Barens led the attack, scoring five goals to go with an assist. Rounding out the scoring were Field, Rivers, Dan Stanhope, Ryan Young and Ryan Oudesluys.

Matt Hebden, Graham Gegear and Stephen Monaghan each had two assists. Stanhope, Field, Rivers, Oudesluys, David Iacocca, David Metcalfe, Sam Brunelle and Graham Marsh had singles.

BANTAM 1

Jon Routledge scored the winning goal — an unassisted effort — for the Bantam 1 Firefighters last Tuesday in their 6-5 clipping of Elora at the Community Centre.

This latest win bumped the locals' league record to 4-0 after a 3-0 exhibition mark.

Also scoring were Derrick McIntyre with a pair, Derek Lockerbie, Nick Vancek and Chris Yeatman.

Sean Durkin headed the assist parade with two. Single helpers were awarded to Lockerbie, Yeatman, Ryan Valente, Mark Faseruk and Matt Williams.

"It was a tight game throughout, but we didn't play to our potential," says AMHA president Dave McIntyre, speaking on behalf of coach Bob Faseruk.

"Elora is one of the harder hitting teams we've faced this year."

Last Monday, the Firefighters were down 2-1 with 10 minutes left against Oakville at the new Glen Abbey complex when Phil McIntyre pulled the trigger twice and his brother Brian once to eke out the win.

The Firefighters played last night (Tuesday) at the Community Centre against Erin.

Next week sees the locals play four games in six nights.

BANTAM 2

In their lone game last week, Ed's In 'N Out was shut out 7-0 at the Community Centre on Saturday by Fergus.

Despite the loss, Ed's manager Mike MacDonald said the future looks bright for the local squad.

"We were outplayed, but we had a strong third period," he said following the game.

"We have signed some new players and are looking forward to a good season."
