

Beat the bug — get a shot

SENIORS' NEWS

Did you know that influenza can be a serious, life-threatening illness for those over 65 years of age? But don't despair — a flu shot every fall is the single most effective means of preventing influenza. See your doctor for details!

Bookends, the used book store located in your Senior's Resource Centre, is getting new books every day! Come in and browse or pick up a good read — we would love to see you!

Your Senior's Resource Centre offers a wide range of services especially for you! Whether you require light housekeeping, transportation to appointments, a friendly visitor, or simply a phone call once in a while, please do not hesitate to call.

You can reach us on Thursdays at 856-2191, or Monday to Friday at 1-800-640-0928. Please feel free to drop in and visit our office at 126 Main St. S. in Rockwood.

Coming up!

Here's what's coming up on the social calendar in Rockwood and area ...

Oct. 26, Wednesday — 9:30 am to noon: Calling all Child Caregivers. Erin Child Care Outreach is starting up a program in Rockwood and Eramosa Township. This program will help caregivers to be more accessible to parents looking for childcare. Join us at 126 Main St. in Rockwood. For info call Judy at 833-0606 or 1-800-640-0928.

Oct. 27, Thursday — 7 pm to 10 pm: "Preparing for Auditions." A workshop with Ken Albanese. If you ever wanted to act but are nervous about auditioning, this one is for you. Call Inga at 856-9221 to register.

Oct. 29, 30, Saturday, Sunday — 4 pm (Saturday), 1 pm (Sunday): Eramosa Community Players invite you to audition for their Christmas Play, written locally about a special Christmas in Rockwood! No experience necessary; all ages needed. For more information call Beth Patterson at 856-2127 or Susan Gailer, 856-1161.

Oct. 30, Sunday — 2 to 4 pm: Open House for Bernice Bacon on the occasion of her 80th birthday at St. John's Parish Hall, Rockwood. Best wishes only, please.

Nov. 1, Tuesday — 7:30 pm: The next E.C.P. monthly meeting in the basement of Rockmosa, takes on a "coffee shop" atmosphere with an emphasis on workshoping theatre skills — with a little attention to business at the end!

ALL SMILES! Krista Petty poses with star Kurt Browning.

Skater meets the stars

Rockwood figure skater Krista Petty joined the stars by skating in the 27th Annual Bursary Gala Show, Oct. 1 and 2 in Toronto. Highlights of the show included World Champion Elvis Stojko, Silver Medallist pair Lloyd Eisler and Isabelle Brasseur, and Ladies Champ Jose Chouinard.

The show was hosted by the Canadian Figure Skating Association to raise funds for the Competitors' Bursary Fund, which in turn is used to support Canada's skaters at various competitions.

Performers are selected by a committee, with several up-and-coming skaters asked to participate. This year, 16-year-old Krista was chosen. To date, this has certainly been a highlight of her young skating career.

TSN covered the event and will air it on TV in the near future.

Anonymous donation

Thanks to the generosity of an elderly Rockwood woman, GO Bus riders will soon be sitting pretty.

The woman, who wishes to remain anonymous, has offered to buy two benches, to be placed at the GO bus stop near the Bell building at the corner of Hwy. 7 and Main Street.

The benches will be installed once the donor has chosen the style. The woman also expressed an interest in putting some flowers beside the benches.
