'Spooky stuff' at M.Z.

M.Z. BENNETT NEWS
 BY AMELIE BARENS & LAURA BARENS

This week at M.Z. Bennett School the Grade 5's and 4's have finished their toothpick bridges and are having a strength test on Wednesday.

UNICEF boxes went home on Friday for children to take out with them on Halloween. This money helps children all over the world. Fund-raiser order forms are due this week for window stickers and calendars.

Kindergartens made veggie soup and veggie prints. All the teachers did a taste test and the Kindergartens got an "A+".

Mrs. Bannerman's, Mrs. Spencer's and Ms. Dunnet's classes went to the Safety Village on last Wednesday. Mrs. Spencer's and Mrs. Bannerman's classes made pumpkin cookies too. The whole school kept asking, "Where is that smell coming from? It sure smells yummy!"

Mrs. Graham's, Mr. Waitson's and Mr. Fisher's classes are starting a unit on mysteries. The stories written by the students will be made into hard bound books.

Mr. Waitson's class is looking forward to our Bridge Showdown. Our parents will be invited to our fun-filled day. Mrs. Graham's class and Mr. Fisher's class will be involved in the celebration too.

Mr. Fisher's class is taking part in finishing up the unit on Bridges as well and will be starting some reading activities on Halloween Monsters. They will be working on mystery stories too.

Town won't buy CN land

The Town has withdrawn its offer to buy 1.6 acres of land on Eastern Avenue from CN Rail.

Administrator Ray King said the purchase offer was withdrawn because "certain conditions we wanted were not in place."

The Town wanted the land, fronting Hwy. 7 between Eastern Avenue and the railway tracks, for long-term land planning purposes, possibly including future parking.
