NOVICE 1

The Nellis Construction Sabres skated to their third consecutive win last Wednesday, defeating Erin 6-2 in Hillsburgh.

Michael Borg collected three goals, while team leader Mark Pawlak added a pair and Joe Brunelle a single marker.

Borg, Kyle Strong and Stephen Boychuk garnered assists.

The win raised the Sabres' record to an impressive 4-2-1.

Last Tuesday, the locals outgunned Fergus 9-7 at the Community Centre.

Pawlak spearheaded the attack with four goals. Borg and Darryl Wright potted two each, while Daine Kuiken-Rogers had one.

Assists went to Wright and Michael Gerrow with three, two apiece to Borg, Kuiken-Rogers, and Pawlak, and one to Strong, Brunelle, Boychuk, Dick and Patrick Sherren.

NOVICE 2

Andy's Restaurant Novice II Sabres increased its win streak to four games last week with two victories, bumping their season mark to 6-1.

Arthur faced Andy's for the first time this season last Wednesday at the Community Centre.

Andrew Robitaille and Jesse Hepburn scored twice each and Troy Ethier once in the 5-1 win.

Assists went to Ethier, Hepburn, Kyle Winters, Chad Artem, Patrick Glatt, Sean Brophy, Tim Pembleton and Nick Newby.

Acton blanked Milton here last Saturday 6-0.

Hepburn led with three goals. Ethier added two and Winters and Robitaille had singles.

Newby, Winters and Brett Manes set up two. Pembleton, Glatt, Robitaille and Corey Wilson had one assist each.

ATOM 1

Two-goal games from Ryan Weatherall, Jeff Payne, Mike Dube and Steve Barends took care of the Rotary Club Sabres' scoring last Wednesday in their 8-1 rout of Fergus at the Community Centre.

Mitch Moore led the assist parade with three. Record two helpers were Dube, Weatherall, Darren Banks and David Lyons.

Andrew Pembleton posted a single assist.

ATOM 2

The Acton Proplastex Sabres continued their unbeaten streak last week with a pair of victories to give them a perfect 7-0 start.

Grand Valley was the lone outfit Acton hadn't played this season in the Doherty Division. And they proved to be the toughest.

The Sabres started slowly and goaltender Chris Schiller was tested many times before his teammate Nick Mastro found the net with two minutes left in the first period.

Adam Brouillard and Sean Kirk drew assists on the goal.

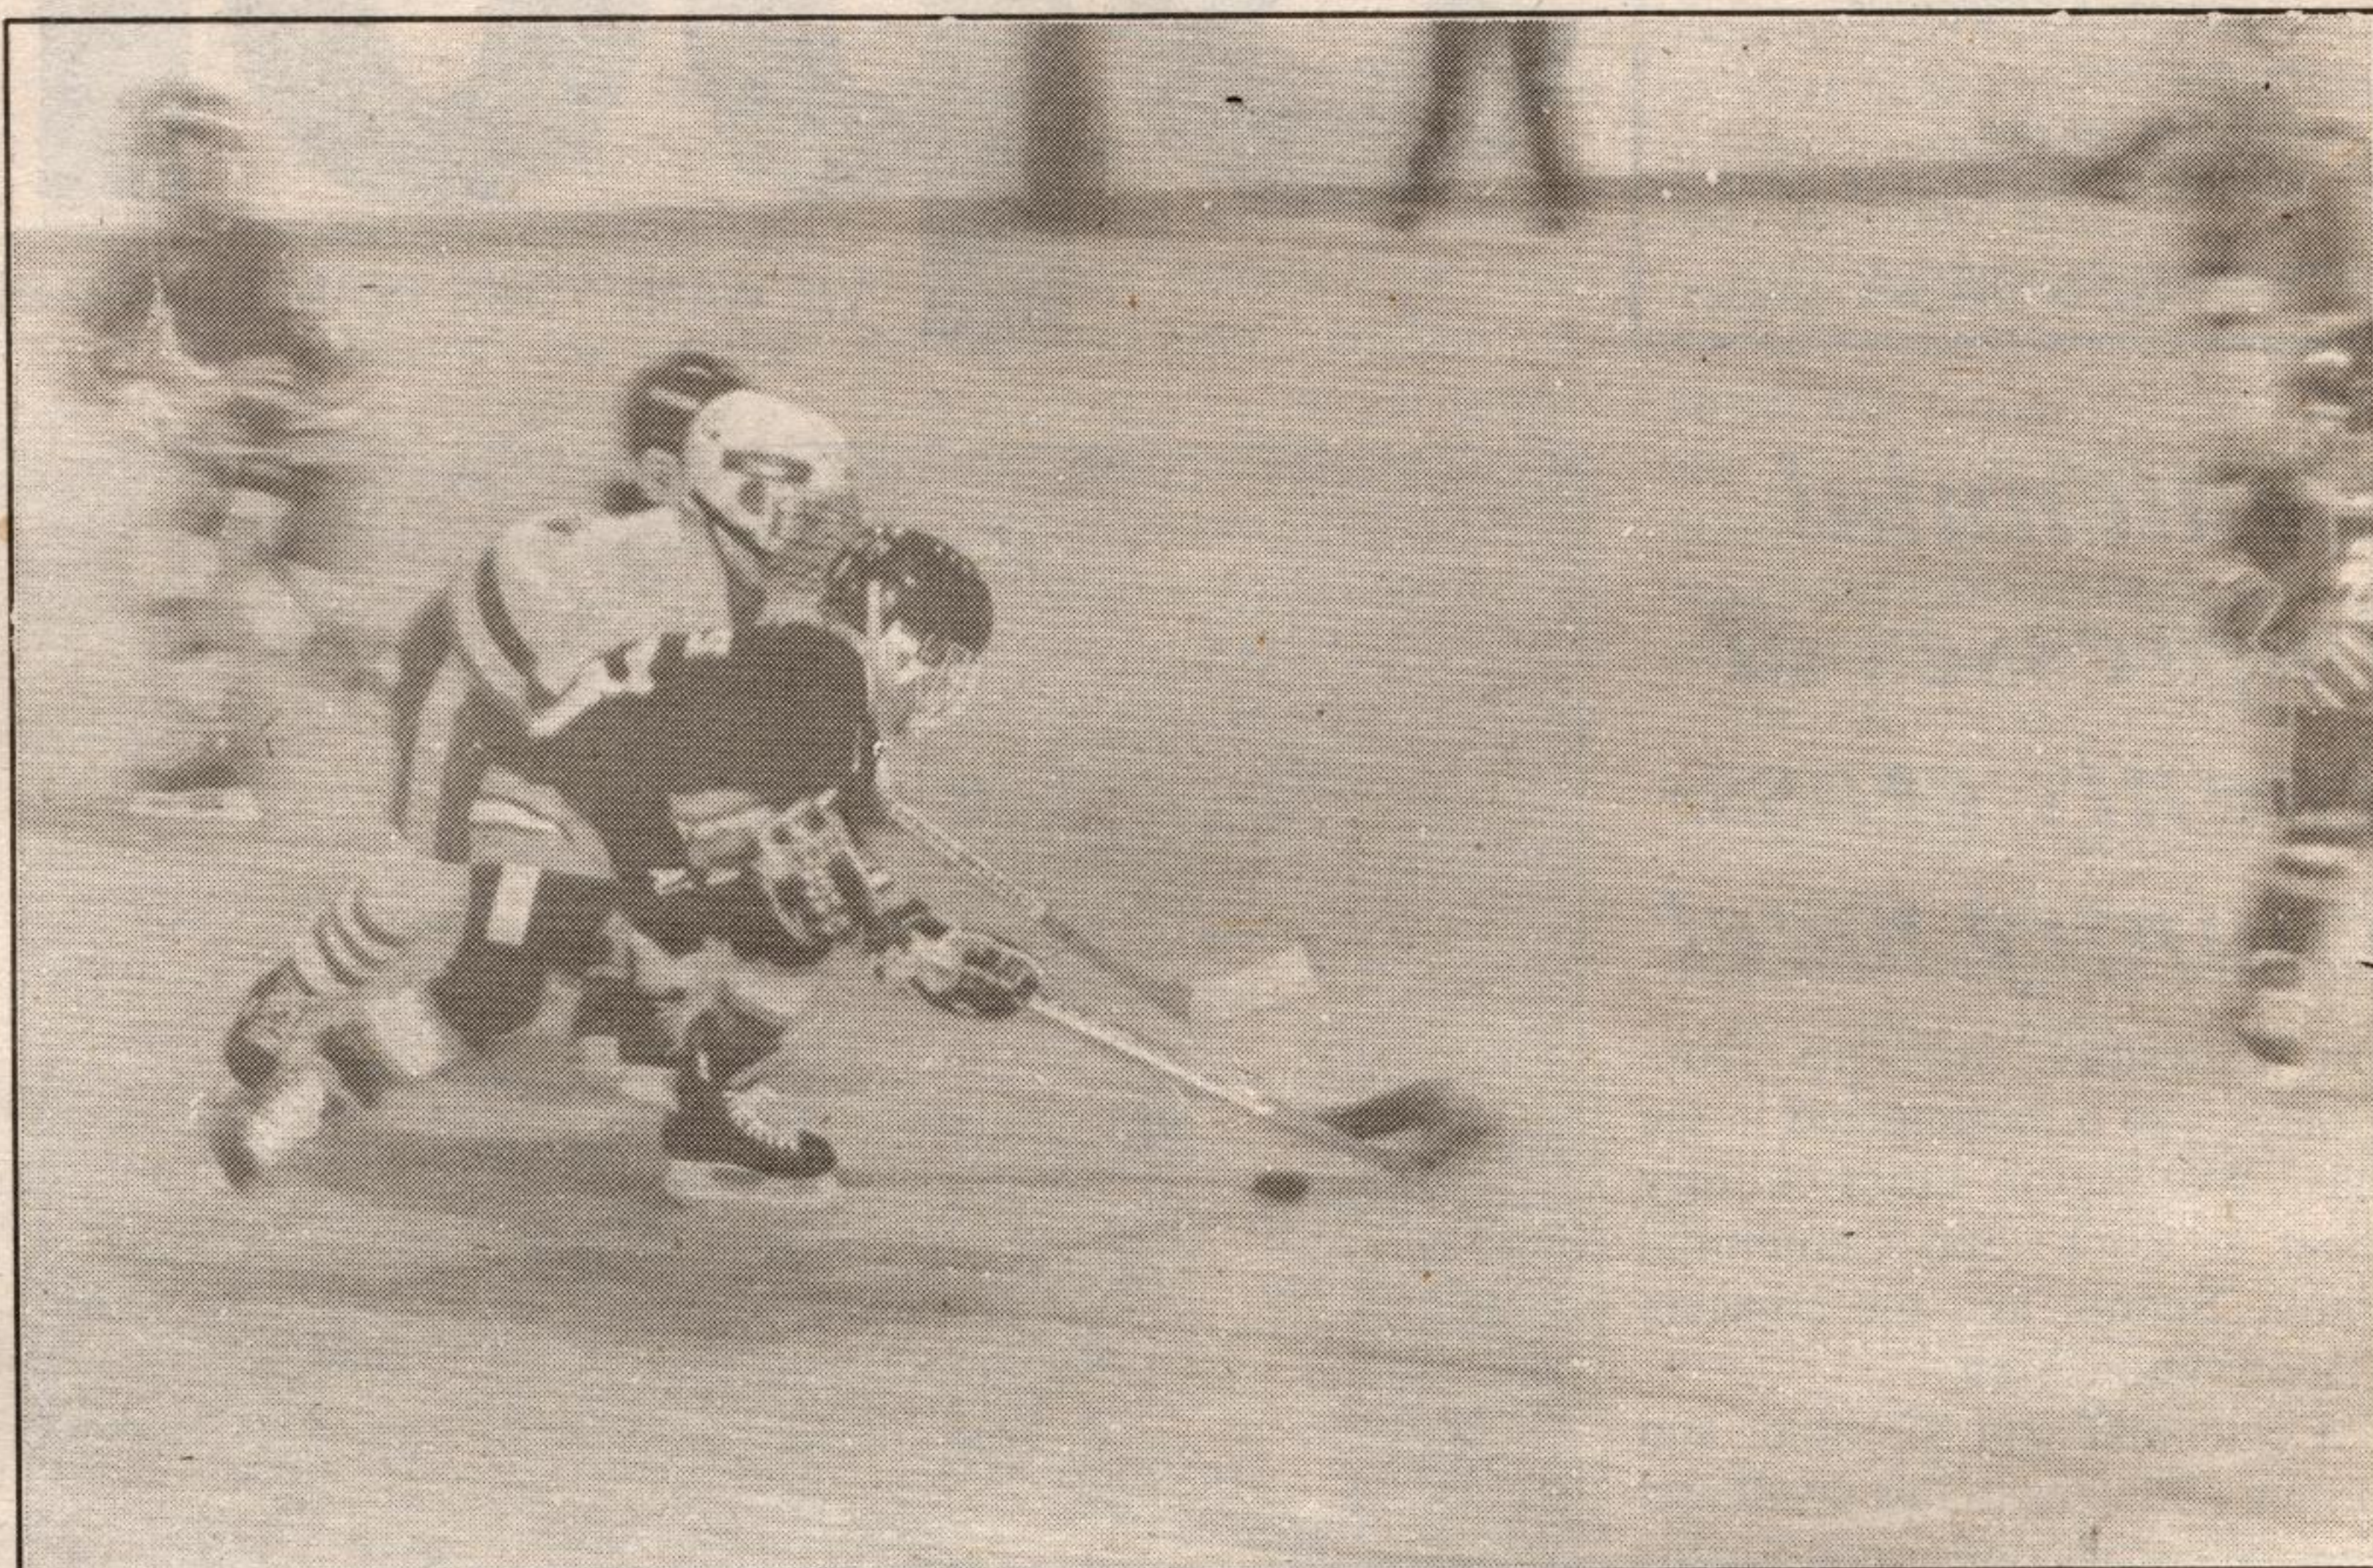

A minute later, Steve Atkinson put Acton ahead 2-0 from Thomas Mahon and Andrew Forbes.

Grand Valley, though, scored early in the second period and started to mount a comeback. Acton, however, played tough and preserved the one-goal advantage.

The locals travelled to Elora recently as Schiller earned his fourth shutout in seven games in the Sabres' 3-0 win.

The visitors dominated from the game's outset, but couldn't find the Elora net until the third period when Shawn Prentice scored from Atkinson and Mahon.

Kirk pocketed an unassisted goal two minutes later and then Atkinson fed Forbes for another to salt the game away.

AMHA SABRES 'TEAM OF THE WEEK'

Nellis Construction skated to its third straight win last Wednesday, prevailing 6-2 win over Erin. A 4-2-1 season mark has earned them Team of the Week honours.

The key word for the Sabres this year is skate. As in, skate hard, efficiently and past opponents.

"Our philosophy is that we want to be able to outskate our opposition," says coach Kent Petty.

"Our practices have emphasized skating and to date, it seems to be working."

The locals have reaped rewards for their hard work on the ice, not only in the win-loss column, but in outskating all but one opponent, according to Petty.

"Skating is the foundation to any good hockey player and to any good team," he stresses. "I don't think there will be many teams that will outskate us."

But as any coach, player and fan knows, no matter how well you skate, a team can't win if they can't keep the puck out of the net.

Over the next few weeks, Nellis will focus on tightening up their defensive play.

"The players are very ambitious and have a lot of energy," Petty assures. "I think we can have a very successful year and I know the players are really enjoying themselves."

The 1994-95 Nellis roster includes Patrick Sherren, Michael Borg, Stephen Boychuk, Kyle Strong, Darryl Wright, Matt Gardener, Brendan Dick, Joe Brunelle, Michael Gerrow, Colin Sheehan, Mark Pawlak, Daine Kuiken-Rogers and goalie Neal Dawkins.

Nellis' assistant coach is Trefor Gardener. Marc Masson serves as the team's trainer and Rick Boychuk is manager.
