AMHA SABRES 'TEAM OF THE WEEK'

It was a rough week for the Bantam 1 Firefighters last week, but they did manage to win one of three games and earn Team of the Week honours.

They suffered 5-2 and 5-3 losses to Erin and Arthur, but soundly defeated Orangeville 6-2 in their barn on Saturday.

Jon Routledge, along with the McIntyre Bros. — Phil, Derrick and Brian — continue to sparkle offensively for the locals.

However, after a strong start to the 1994-95 campaign, the Firefighters seemed to have hit a lull the past three weeks.

"The team jumped out early in the season, winning the first four games, but since have only one win in their last five contests," says coach Bob Faseruk.

"Suspensions have slowed us down the last few games. I'm convinced that if we play at full strength and the boys play their game, we can beat anyone in our league."

Faseruk warns that opposing teams shouldn't be taking his players lightly and promptly made a bold prediction.

"We will be there at the end," he vows. "You can count on it."

Helping Faseruk on the bench are assistant coach Tony Van Dam, Mike Adema, trainer, and manager Dave McIntyre.

Firefighter netminders Mike Kempton and James Metcalfe were instrumental in the team's early-season success.

The rest of the Firefighter lineup is as follows: Nick Van Egmond, Matt Williams, Ryan Valente, Bob Brooks, Mark Faseruk, Derek Lockerbie, Phil McIntyre, Brian McIntyre, captain Derrick McIntyre, Jon Routledge, Sean Durkin, Greg McMillan, Nick Vancek and Chris Yeatman.
